SAYS HE ASKED NO MAN TO CONTRIBUTE

Col. Roosevelt on Witness Stand Makes Sweeping Declaration Regarding Campaign Funds.

GROWS EMPHATHIC IN DENUNCIATION

Washington, Oct. 4.—"I asked no man to contribute to the campaign fund when I was elected president of the United States and I wish to reiterate that Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou both assured me that no promise had been made as a return for any contribution.

"Neither they nor anyone else having authority asked me to act or refrain from acting in any matter while I was president, because any contribution should be made or withheld.

"Gentlemen, could I put it more sweepingly?"

In these words Col. Theodore Roosevelt summarized his testimony today at the close of the first part of his hearing before the Clapp committee of the senate investigating campaign funds. He was to continue on the witness chair when the committee resumed after luncheon. The colonel specifically denied that he ever asked for contributions to his 1904 campaign funds, or that he had known of any contribution by J. P. Morgan.

Ordered Cash Returned.

To those unequivocal statements Col. Roosevelt added again that he had ordered the return to the Standard Oil company of any contribution it might have made in 1904; that he had been assured by George B. Cortelyou "only yesterday," that he knew of no such contribution, and that he did not believe Cornelius N. Bliss had ever demanded a contribution from John D. Archbold or from any corporation by any methods of extortion.

Col. Roosevelt did not deny that corporations had contributed to the 1904 campaign. He said his letters and published statements had always acknowledged that fact, but he specified that no such contributions had ever been obtained under any suggestion that the administration would reward the givers with special favors.

Forceful and Emphatic.

The progressive candidate for president was a forceful and emphatic witness. Although direct from a campaign tour of many weeks, he appeared in perfect health and his testimony was punctuated by vigorous slaps upon the arm of his chair and his knee. For two hours he talked and was interrupted but a half dozen times with questions.

Col. Roosevelt's testimony glistened with characteristic statements.

Renews Attack on Penrose.

"Senator Penrose should be driven from the senate," he declared, "because of his acknowledged friendliness with Standard Oil interests. Charles D. Hillies and Congressman Bartholdt should be forced to prove their statements that the Roosevelt primary campaign fund this year amounted to $3,000,000 or $4,000,000, or should be driven out of public life."

He declared, as had Senator Dixon, his campaign manager, Wednesday that the senate committee's activities had thus far been directed solely toward the Roosevelt campaign fund and that no attention had been paid to other candidates.

He was assured by Senator Clapp that the representatives of other candidates would all be called "before election."

A murmur of applause culminating in a cheer greeted Col. Roosevelt as he entered the building about five minutes before the time set for his appearance. He forced his way through the crowds in the corridors with some difficulty and found his way to Chairman Clapp's private room. There he met the members of the committee. The crowd continued to grow and every door of the big room was surrounded by an anxious crowd.

Nothing to Say About Anything.

Col. Roosevelt learned this morning that Gov. Hadley, of Missouri, had declared in favor of President Taft. He would make no comment upon the governor's action. Nor would he express an opinion upon the nomination of Congressman Sulzer as democratic candidate for governor of New York.

"I have nothing to say upon any subject," said the colonel.

The spectators applauded vigorously as Col. Roosevelt entered the room followed by a secretary lugging a big valise filled with papers. The colonel took his place in the witness chair, and the secretary with the big grip between his knees seated himself beside him.

"You were a candidate for president in 1904?" asked Senator Clapp.

"I was," answered the colonel shortly.

"George B. Cortelyou was chairman of the committee that year?"

"He was."

"And Cornelius N. Bliss was treasurer?"

"He was."

Senator Clapp asked Col. Roosevelt if his attention had been called to certain statements made by John D. Archbold.

"It has," replied Col. Roosevelt tersely.

Senator Clapp asked the colonel what he knew about the Archbold contribution at the time it was said to have been made. The colonel asked permission to include in his answer the letter he sent to Chairman Clapp, already published, denying that he knew nothing of any Standard Oil contribution to the 1904 campaign at the time it was made.

Can't Recall All of Them.

"In the first place, gentlemen," he said, "since I was elected governor of New York, that was about fourteen years ago, I have written and signed about a hundred thousand letters, so it is not possible at once to recall all the letters I have written on any given subject.

"Looking through my letter books since I wrote my recent letter to Senator Clapp, I have found two other letters bearing on the subject of campaign contributions. One was the letter to Cornelius N. Bliss in 1906, which I understand was recently given to your committee; the other a letter written to George R. Sheldon in 1908."

Col. Roosevelt turned to his assistant to ask for his letter book. The colonel finally found the letter he sought, and stepping down from the witness chair, handed it to Senator Clapp, who had it placed in the record as an exhibit. At the chairman's request Col. Roosevelt read the letter dated Sept. 21, 1908, and addressed to George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the republican national committee. It was practically as follows:

"I am informed that you or some one on behalf of the national committee has been soliciting contributions from corporations, particularly John D. Archbold and the Standard Oil company. If this is true, I wish to enter a vigorous protest and say that not only should such contributions be refused, but that if made that it should be immediately returned."

The letter set forth that "four years ago Mr. Cortelyou refused all contributions from corporations which were being prosecuted or were likely to be prosecuted and that Col. Roosevelt wished the same course followed in the 1908 campaign.

Reads Another Letter.

Col. Roosevelt read also the letter of Oct. 26, 1904, to Chairman George B. Cortelyou, in which he directed that if any money had been contributed by the Standard Oil company or John D. Archbold, it should be returned at once. This letter, he said, had been referred to and partly quoted in his recent letter to Senator Clapp. It was an emphatic declaration to Mr. Cortelyou that "we cannot under any circumstances afford too take a contribution that might be construed as placing us under any obligations."

Col. Roosevelt said he had also found that on Sept. 27, 1904, he had sent an "extra telegram" to Chairman George B. Cortelyou, which he had only recently found. It was sent from Oyster Bay and referred to his letter to Mr. Cortelyou, demanding return of the Standard Oil contribution.

Col. Roosevelt offered the committee the originals of all the letters he had sent to Chairman Clapp or had read into the record.

"We'll take your word for that," said Senator Oliver, as the colonel returned to the witness chair and testified that

KILLED IN FALL BENEATH TRAIN

Conductor John P. Mahoney Victim of Fatality at Bluffton.

WAS FORT WAYNE MAN

John P. Mahoney, of Fort Wayne, a Lake Erie and Western railroad conductor, was killed at Bluffton at 10:30 o'clock this morning while coupling cars. He was running along on the end of the ties and his foot slipped, throwing him under the wheels. The body was terribly mangled and the head almost severed from the body.

Mahoney was thirty-seven years old and lived at 101 Third street. He had been in the employ of the L. E. & W. for the last twelve years and has lived in Fort Wayne during the last fifteen years of his life. He was a member of the B. of R. T., local No. 136, the Order of Railway Conductors and the Eagles. Mr. Mahoney was a devout member of the Precious Blood Catholic church.

Immediate relatives surviving are the wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michel Mahoney, of Tipton; one brother, Michael Mahoney, of Lafayette; two sisters, Mrs. Clair, of Lafayette, and Miss Nora Mahoney, of Lafayette.

The body will be brought to this city at 10:20 o'clock tonight and will be taken to the Getz & Cahill undertaking parlors to be prepared for burial.

BIG LINER CUTS WARSHIP IN TWO

Fifteen Officers and Men of British Navy Perish in Accident.

SUBMARINE IS SUNK

Dover, Eng., Oct. 4.—Fifteen officers and men of the British navy were drowned today by the sinking of the submarine "B-2" after she had been cut in two by the Hamburg-American liner Amerika off the coast of Kent.

The commander of the little vessel, Lieut. Percy B. O'Brien, was among the victims, but his second in command, Lieut. Richard I. Pulleyne, was rescued after being a long time in the water. He was the only survivor and was utterly exhausted when picked up.

The disaster in which the "B-2" was sunk occurred while the third patrol flotilla of submarines, consisting of six vessels, was maneuvering off the south foreland on the coast of Kent. The liner Amerika appears to have cut the submarine completely in halves.

Lieut. Richard I. Pulleyne, who was second in command, was the only man among the crew of fifteen who was saved. He was found floating in the sea too exhausted to say more when he was rescued than "the submarine is cut in two. I went down a mile."

The "B-2" had left Dover harbor at 5 the other submarines in a series of maneuvers. The accident occurred just an hour later although none of the sister submarines knew nothing about it until Lieut Pulleyne was pulled from the sea.

The young lieutenant collapsed after he was taken from the water and conveyed to the parent ship.

The liner Amerika stood by after the collision and threw life buoys overboard while a number of torpedo boats, after being informed of the accident by wireless telegraphy, searched the sea for hours. None of the other men of the crew, however, was found and no sign of the wreckage was discernible in the vicinity. The Amerika then proceeded on her voyage to Southampton and Cherbourg on her way to New York. This is the sixth disaster to British submarines, each of them involving the loss of from eleven to fifteen lives.

CLEVELAND MAN NEW PRESIDENT

Charles Lathrop Pack is Chosen by Conservation Congress.

SESSION NEARS END

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4.—Charles Lathrop Pack, an expert forester and millionaire of Cleveland Ohio, today was elected president of the national conservation congress for next year. Other officers chosen are: Vice president, Philip N. Moore, St. Louis; executive secretary, Thomas R. Shipp, Indianapolis; recording secretary, J. C. Gipe, Washington, D. C., and treasurer, D. A. Latchaw.

Amendments to the constitution placing the congress on a permanent basis with a membership roll, instead of having the delegates appointed by states, municipalities and organizations were adopted.

Dr. Burton J. Ashley, of Morgan Park, Ill., in his address on "Sewage Disposition," said a badly constructed sewer system was worse than none at all as it created a false sense of security.

Dr. Livingston Farrand, of New York, executive secretary of the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis, deplored the lack of methods for the registration of tuberculosis cases and estimated there are 2,000,000 cases annually in the United States.

George H. Lahmo, representing the mayor of Pittsburg, explained the flood commission of that city.

The congress was expected to adjourn this afternoon.

BRITISH FLEET MOVES.

London, Oct. 4.—The British Mediterranean fleet was ordered today to proceed to the Levant, according to a news agency dispatch from Gibraltar. The cruiser Weymouth immediately left at full speed for Suda Bay on the north coast of Crete.

INDIANA VOTERS HAIL GOV. WILSON

MAKES MANY STOPS

Peru, Ind., Oct. 4.—With democratic state leaders Gov. Woodrow Wilson went campaigning through Indiana today and found enthusiastic crowds. His special train stopped frequently en route and the governor appeared on the platform to shake hands. At one station the crowd had spread itself around the end of the train seemingly in line with an approaching switch engine.

"It doesn't look safe over there," warned the nominee.

"Oh, democrats are safe anywhere this year," answered a voice from the crowd. At Kokomo the governor was forced to swing around and make two speeches, the crowd was so large.

The governor repeated what he said at Indianapolis, declaring that under both former President Roosevelt and President Taft conditions now generally complained of had arisen which the democratic party has undertaken to correct.

The nominee read with interest, he said, about the situation in California with respect to Taft electors. When asked for comment he said "it needs no comment."

MARSHALL IN NEW YORK.

Governor is Heard in Two Addresses in Gotham.

New York, Oct. 4.—The democratic candidate for the vice presidency, Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, spent a few hours in New York today. Two brief addresses, one at the tariff exhibit in Union Square, the other before the Commercial Travelers' league, both to be given around the noon hour comprised the candidate's program for the day here. The governor reached New York this morning from New London, Conn., where he ended his New England tour last night. He was accompanied by Mrs. Marshall. He planned to leave during the afternoon for Harrisburg, Pa., where he is to deliver a speech tonight. He will go from Harrisburg to Indianapolis. After a rest of a day or two he will resume his campaigning with a tour of the middle west.

THREE SPEECHES FOR JOHNSON.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 4.—On the last day of his up-state campaign tour, Gov. Johnson today planned to speak in Corning, Bath and Binghamton. The address at Bath was to be a brief rear platform talk. The governor intended to leave Binghamton immediately after his night engagement for New York. During the three days he has toured the state the governor has been received by large and enthusiastic crowds.

PEACE PACT IS SIGNED UP

Turkey Has Accepted Italian Terms for Ending of Warfare.

REACH AGREEMENT IN SWITZERLAND

Sultan Will Soon Be Busy in a New Clash With Balkan States.

London, Oct. 4.—Peace between Italy and Turkey was signed at Ouchy, Switzerland, last night, according to a news agency dispatch received here from Paris.

VOTED TO ACCEPT TERMS.

Favorable Action Was Taken by Turkish Cabinet.

Constantinople, Oct. 4.—That the Turkish cabinet voted yesterday to accept Italy's latest proposals for peace, was the announcement made today from an authoritative source. The preliminary agreements are to be signed upon the arrival at Ouchy of a special Turkish emissary who left Constantinople immediately after the cabinet meeting yesterday.

TO ANNIHILATE GREEKS.

News of Turkish Plot Develops in Albania.

Athens, Greece, Oct. 4.—Plans to annihilate all the Greeks now in Albania have been laid, according to reports received this morning from the Greece-Turkish frontier. The reports say a Greek notable at Pilipiade has been assassinated.

The Albanian governor of Jania has created a force of armed military police composed of 100 outlaws, and sent them out ostensibly to pursue Greek rebels, but it is alleged that the real object of the expedition is to annihilate all the Greeks in the vicinity. It is also reported that bomb outrages are being arranged and the responsibility for them is to be cast on the Greeks, in order to proroke their massacre by the Turks. Three battalions of Montenegrin troops are reported to have crossed the Turkish frontier to assist the Malissori tribesmen in checking the approach of the Turkish troops.

PRINCE GEORGE HASTENS BACK.

Copenhagen, Oct. 4.—Prince George of Greece started today for Athens to be ready to join the Greek army should hostilities break out.

INDIANA WOMAN SLAIN IN HOME

Mrs. Gilbert Crumley Brutally Murdered at Attica.

HAD BEEN QUARREL

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Gilbert Crumley, wife of a wealthy retired farmer at Attica, was found brutally murdered in her home at 9 o'clock this morning, the deed having been committed some time in the night. Her husband says he and his wife quarrel early in the evening and he went out and spent the night on a railroad nearby.

He says he returned this morning, found his wife's bedroom door broken in and her body lying on the floor. Her head was crushed in as if with an ax. Crumley and his wife were divorced sixteen years ago and were recently remarried. The husband is not in custody but is under surveillance.

OLLIE JAMES IN FORT WAYNE

Famous Kentuckian Talks to Labor at Noonday Meeting.

ROBBER TARIFF GIVEN SCORING

Pleads for Democracy and Praises Cline's Work in Congress.

Declaring that the control of the republican party has nearly ruined this country, and that if republican power is allowed to continue its methods, disaster and ruin will surely follow, Ollie James, prominent democratic statesman and senator-elect from Kentucky, at noon today addressed a crowd of more than five hundred men at the corner of Holman and Clinton streets.

OLLIE JAMES,
Eminent Kentucky Democrat Who Delivered Address Here.

The Kentucky orator was enthusiastically greeted. His audience was responsive, and cheered itself hoarse during his denunciation of the tariff. Arriving at 11:45 o'clock from Warsaw, where this morning he spoke to another large audience, Mr. James was met by a local reception committee, and headed by the Electro-Technic band, marched to the corner two blocks north of the depot. A huge crowd soon assembled, and was addressed first by Maurice C. Niezer, who presided as chairman.

Talked to Laboring Men.

Mr. James' address was of direct interest to the laboring voters. He attacked the different provisions of the tariff bill, and by the words of opposite party leaders he sought to show how the people of this country are downtrodden and abused by the bosses, and how the present administration at the national capital co-operates with the trusts in taking the money from the workingman's pockets.

"I am glad of an opportunity to address you here," said Mr. James. "I have been in Indiana in years gone by, and I feel at home. I come today to make a righteous appeal to the laboring people. I was one myself. I don't look

HERE ARE SOME MORE PRESIDENTAL VOTES.

A presidential "straw" vote taken in the offices of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad Tuesday resulted as follows:

Wilson, 24; Debs, 22; Roosevelt, 6; Taft, 5; Free Trade, 1.

Another vote was taken by the employes in the Pennsylvania shop clerk's office. The result is as follows:

Wilson, 19; Roosevelt, 6; Taft, 2; Debs, 1.

PLUNGES INTO WABASH TRAIN

Street Car Beyond Control Descending a Hill at Lafayette.

19 PEOPLE INJURED

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 4.—Nineteen people were injured in a street car accident here today when a southbound street car descending a hill got beyond the control of the motorman and crashed into a moving Wabash freight train.

The passengers all jumped except three and the city ambulance was kept busy taking the injured to their homes. The sand box of the car refused to operate and wet leaves on the track caused the accident.

Two cars of the freight train were knocked from the track and the street car, badly smashed, was dragged along by the train.

The injured will all recover.

The Whole Family in the Cast

ONE of the "front row chorus girls" in the production of "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop" was Betty McCulloch, aged four, microscopic daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. McCulloch. She was a member of the line of diminutive specimens of girlhood that caused the repeated encores for the final act of the entertainment. In the production, Mr. McCulloch took the part of a clown. Mrs. McCulloch was not a member of the cast.

The incident which this anecdote describes occurred previous to the production of the entertainment. A friend, calling at the McCulloch home, remarked to Betty:

"So you're going to be in the show, are you, Betty? Well won't that be nice?"

"Yes," responded Betty, "we're all going to be in the show. Papa's going to be a clown, and I am going to be a fairy, and mama's going to be a goat."

Explanation: Mrs. McCulloch as president of the College club, under whose auspices the entertainment was given for the benefit of a day nursery, worked hard for the success of the event. One evening, in the presence of Betty, Mr. McCulloch remarked to his wife, "And if anything goes wrong, why you will have to be the goat."

"We're all going to be in it."

Betty immediately enrolled her mother as a member of the cast.

WAS WELL KNOWN IN FORT WAYNE

Charles W. Durban Dies Suddenly in I. C. Station at Chicago.

WAS RAILROAD MAN

Charles W. Durban, formerly a resident of this city and a well-known Nickel Plate conductor, died suddenly Thursday morning in trainmen's headquarters at the Illinois Central depot at Chicago. Mr. Durban had just reported for his run and had seated himself in a chair when he fell to the floor unconscious. He died before medical aid could reach him. Death was due to organic heart disease.

Mr. Durban was reared in Fort Wayne and took employment with the Nickel Plate railroad when a young man. He resigned in 1894 and moved to Chicago, accepting employment with the Illinois Central as a passenger conductor. He was 55 years of age.

Surviving besides the widow and aged mother are two brothers and two sisters. George A. Miller, the Pennsylvania engineer, is a brother-in-law of the deceased. He was a member of Chicago lodge No. 1, Order of Railway Conductors.

The remains will reach Fort Wayne this evening and will be met at the station by members of the local O. R. C. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of George A. Miller, 231 East Williams street. Interment at Eel River cemetery.

FERBER.

Conrad Ferber, for many years engaged in the blacksmith business at Soest, Ind., died Thursday at his home in that place. Death was due to complications. The deceased had resided in Soest for thirty-five years.

Surviving he leaves the widow and the following children: Mrs. Gottfried, Mrs. Henry Salzbrenner and Martin and Christian Ferber, of Fort Wayne; Herman, Charles, Paulin and Clara Ferber, at home. There are also four step-children—Louis, William, Christian and Emma Hegerfeld. There are two brothers and three sisters—Henry Ferber, of Fort Wayne; Rev. George Ferber, of Lake City, Mich.; Mrs. Catherine Lepper, of Adams township; Miss Elizabeth and Miss Christina Ferber, of this city.

Funeral services Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence.

Mr. Ferber is also survived by two half-brothers and a half-sister, William Nord and Mrs. Carl Lepper, of Marion township, and Louis Nord, of Fort Wayne.

BALDOCK.

Mrs. Mary Jane Baldock, wife of William Baldock, the well known printer, died at 9:20 o'clock this morning at the family residence at 1932½ Calhoun street, of carcinoma. Mrs. Baldock was fifty years old and had been sick for a year and confined to her bed for five weeks. Mrs. Baldock was born in Fremont, O., and her maiden name was Moffitt. She was a devoted member of the Free Methodist church and affiliated with the United Order of Foresters.

Surviving relatives are the husband and two daughters, Carrie and DeEtta Baldock, and one brother, Dr. M. M. Moffitt, of Washington, D. C.

ELLSWORTH.

Hannah Ellsworth, widow of August Ellsworth, died Thursday afternoon at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Julian Taylor, 913 Lincoln avenue, at the age of 84 years. Death was due to infirmities of age.

Mrs. Ellsworth was a native of Ohio but had resided in Fort Wayne for the past twenty years. Surviving besides the daughter is one son, Avery Ellsworth, who resides in Montana.

Brief funeral services Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence. The remains will be shipped to Antwerp, O., for interment.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Fisher—Funeral services for Frank R. Fisher Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence, 1117 Edgewater avenue. Interment at Lindenwood.

MILLER OUTLINES DETAILS OF PLOT

Says Accused Dynamiters Wanted Strongest Stuff Ever Invented.

CHANGED TO NITRO

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4.—"The strongest stuff ever invented," was the way Herbert S. Hockin referred to nitro-glycerine when he bought it to carry on a conspiracy, according to the charges presented today at the trial of the accused "dynamite plotters."

It was after dynamite was found to be not "strong" enough, according to District Attorney Charles W. Miller, that the defendants in December, 1909, decided to use nitro-glycerine. The details, as charged by Mr. Miller, were:

Ortie E. McManigal had been blowing up non-union jobs with dynamite and was in Chicago. In response to a telegram from Hockin he went to Indianapolis.

"We have decided to use nitro," said Hockin, "and we're going down to Muncie to get a supply."

"That's pretty dangerous stuff," said McManigal.

They Went to Muncie.

"Yes its the strongest stuff ever invented." They went to Muncie, where they met J. B. McNamara. On a pretext that they wanted to experiment, they bought from J. W. Kaiser 120 quarts of nitro-glycerine. They then rented a vacant house in which to hide the explosive. Neighbors, who saw the "dynamiters" coming and going at night, an express driver who hauled the explosive and a grocer who sold boxes, are to testify. Muncie for a time formed the headquarters from which the "dynamiting crew" started on its destructive campaigns. While the "crew" was on duty, Mr. Miller asserted, Chas. N. Blum, Minneapolis; Henry W. Legleitner, then in Pittsburg; Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco; Frank C. Webb, New York; John T. Butler, Buffalo, and Michael J. Young, Boston, were active in sending information about non-union jobs that were to be blown up and where the "dynamiters" were to go. Frank M. Ryan, president of the iron workers' union, who carried on the arrangements by mail, Mr. Miller said, wrote letters saying "Hockin will take care of the jobs at Davenport, Iowa, and Peoria, Ill. We'll have to send a man to Mt. Vernon, Ill., because Paul J. Morrin, at St. Louis, can't go to Mt. Vernon, for he has been there before."

SAYS HE ASKED NO MAN TO CONTRIBUTE

he knew of no other letters bearing on the subject and had practically forgotten the Sheldon letter until he came across it searching his files.

"Now, in regard to the 'Harriman fund,'" began Senator Clapp.

Col. Roosevelt interrupted and asked to explain "the charges that have been made" in regular order, and Senator Clapp acquiesced.

Only Hearsay Evidence.

"There is no testimony against me, except in the form of hearsay evidence," the colonel said; "hearsay statements of men that are dead.

"Mr. Archbold and Mr. Penrose purport to give statements of what Mr. Bliss had to say; Mr. Bliss is dead. Mr. Odell and the other gentleman refer to statements made by Mr. Harriman, who is dead."

"May I speak of a letter published in Hearst's Magazine from Congressman Sibley?" asked the colonel and then went on: "It is a letter which, in substance, states that Sibley came to see me and speak to me about seeing Mr. Archbold and said I would be 'delighted' to see him and asked Mr. Sibley to bring Mr. Archbold to lunch. I don't remember ever having talked to Mr. Sibley about that matter, but it is very possible I may have done so. Any invitation that I may have extended was the result of a request by Mr. Sibley. I always saw any man brought to me by a representative or a senator."

The colonel did not remember ever having talked with Mr. Sibley about Mr. Archbold. He said Senator Bourne had once brought Mr. Archbold to lunch at Oyster Bay.

The colonel spoke very slowly.

He'll Send for Them.

"While I was president," he said, leaning forward, "If any man, trust magnate, socialist, lawyer or clergyman, had any business with me and wanted to see me, I gladly saw him. And, if I thought there was anything to be gained from the standpoint of the public service in seeing any man, then, without waiting for him to ask, I would send for him. If I am elected president, a year hence, if Mr. Rockefeller or any one else wants to see me, I'll see him, and moreover, if I have anything to ask for the public service from Mr. Rockefeller or any one else I'll send for him."

Shakes Fist at Committee.

The colonel leaned forward in his chair, shook his fist at the committee, and shouted: "And I hold that the senate of the United States should throw Mr. Penrose out of the senate for the admissions he made before this committee."

"Now as to Mr. Archbold," resumed the colonel, "he testified he made this contribution and expected some unusual kind of compensation. He says Mr. Penrose tried to blackmail him, yet he sees nothing wrong in what Mr. Bliss did. He sees nothing improper in attempting to extort a contribution from him. His complaint is that nothing improper was done for him."

"Darkest Abyssinia" Again.

He referred to Archbold's statement that the Roosevelt administration treatment of the Standard Oil company rivalled "darkest Abyssinia."

"It is true that when I was president I administered the 'darkest Abyssinian treatment' to the Standard Oil company, but it was because it needed it. If I am president again, I will again administer it to any corporation of the Standard Oil type that may need it." The colonel added that a strengthening of the anti-trust law was needed.

Col. Roosevelt resumed the stand when the committee reconvened and Senator Paynter took up his examination. The colonel reiterated that his first knowledge of $100,000 contributions in 1904 by J. P. Morgan or George J. Gould came from the testimony of George R. Sheldon yesterday.

"In knew H. C. Frick had contributed heavily and was ready to contribute more," he said. "I did not know the amount. Mr. Knox had told me that Mr. Frick was one of my strongest backers."

"I had heard there was a Standard Oil contribution," said the colonel, "but I did not know that it came from Mr. Archbold." He could not remember who told him.

Col. Roosevelt was excused as a witness before the Clapp committee at 4:06 o'clock. He plans to return to New York, leaving at midnight.

SETS NEW RECORD BY WONDERFUL SWIM

NELLIE SCHMIDT, SNAPPED AT THE FINISH OF HER RECORD SWIM.

Nell Schmidt, of Alameda, Cal., has long been credited as being the greatest woman swimmer the Pacific coast has ever seen, but her performance recently of swimming almost a mile round the Seal Rocks off the Cliff House, at San Francisco, fighting the tides and current rips all the way, and doing the distance in 34 minutes, 50 seconds, is the best she has ever done. It is one of the greatest feats ever accomplished in aquatics by any woman in any part of the world.

Her swim conclusively proves the right of her claim of being the woman speed champion in open water. It is doubtful if even Miss Vera Neave, of England, holder of the world's record for the mile, could outdistance the Alameda wonder. The course was about 200 yards short of a full mile, and when it is considered that it was covered in 34 minutes and 50 seconds, against strong tides and treacherous current rips, the merit of the performance is apparent when compared with Miss Neave's world record for the mile in 31 minutes and 41 4-5 seconds.

Although the distance around the Seal Rocks is not so far, it is a hard swim, on account of the tides that swirl about the rocks. Miss Schmidt got into a tide rip just after rounding the northerly rock, and for five minutes she made no headway.

Practically the whole swim was accomplished with the double overarm stroke, though many times she changed to the single stroke for resting purposes. Her arm strokes are strong and her kick terrific. She puts tremendous force into the leg action, getting more speed thereby than the usual swimmer.

WANT WIVES FOR MEN IN THE WEST

Railroad is Searching for Girls from the East as Homesteaders.

WANTS TEN THOUSAND

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 4.—Ten thousand wives are wanted by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad for 10,000 bachelors living along the line of that system in the country west of the Missouri river. D. Clem Deaver, of Omaha, industrial agent of the railroad, will have charge of the mating, and when he opens his matrimonial agency it will be the biggest thing of the kind in the United States.

Thousands of young men have taken up homesteads in Western Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, South Dakota and Montana. Because the country is so sparsely settled, women are scarce and the homesteaders have not the opportunity of becoming acquainted with girls of marriageable age. In fact, there are practically no girls of that age in that portion of the country.

To overcome this condition the railroad has decided to get into the business of furnishing wives to the young farmers in the territory served by its trains. Mr. Deaver expects to be ready for applicants within a short time.

The idea is the outgrowth of the results attained by a club of young bachelor ranchmen in the Big Horn basin, who last year banded themselves together and started on a hunt for wives. There were something like fifty members of that club. There were practically no unmarried women in the basin. The boys appointed a secretary and used the want ads in city newspapers. In about six months the club was disbanded. Every bachelor had secured a wife.

Women in Elevated Car Drive Men Out When Old Bird Appears.

BABY WAS A GIRL

New York, Oct. 4.—Passengers on the front car of a Third avenue "L" train bound south saw a young woman sag in her seat as if about to collapse. A woman passenger asked if she was ill. The young woman replied in a whisper. Instantly the other woman uttered the command:

"All you' men get out of here!"

The train was nearing the One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street station, but the motorman, Daniel McGuigan, stopped it. He, too, was told to go to another car, and obeyed.

An ambulance in charge of Dr. Eddy arrived from Lincoln hospital. All southbound traffic on the "L" had been halted.

"You come back now and run your train to the platform," McGuigan was told by the woman who had taken full charge of the situation. "It's a girl, and a fine one, too."

The motorman hurried to his box, tooted his whistle and pulled up to the platform. Then the surgeon and volunteers took mother and baby to the ambulance. The mother was Mrs. Esther Cherrick, of No. 1522 Webster avenue. The father called at the hospital. He said he didn't think he'd name his daughter Elevated, but thought he'd compromise on Ellen.

BIG EARS SHOW DEFICIENCY.

Educator Says Features Denote Mental Powers of an Individual.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 4.—Quite a stir was caused among 1,200 teachers at the session of the Cincinnati institute when Dr. Arthur Holmes, of the University of Pennsylvania, declared that large, flaring ears are one of the indications of mental deficiency and that a great many teachers are mentally defective. The teachers nervously and furtively examined each other's ears. Persons with aquiline noses are rarely deficient, he claims.

He said that the hand is more significant that the head in determining the development of an individual. Persons with long slender hands of a smooth texture are most likely to lack energy and to be deficient mentally, he says. Then he added:

A Good General Rule.

Among the wide range of topics under discussion at the national Conservation congress in progress at Indianapolis this week, considerable time was given to the question of accident prevention as a means of conserving not only human life but wealth as well. In the course of an address upon this theme Melville W. Mix, of Mishawaka, took a decided stand for the education of operatives and employes in all lines to consider safety as the first requisite of vocational endeavor.

Mr. Mix contends that the average man at work for himself or in the pursuit of his own happiness will take more chances of life and limb than it is necessary for him to take, and there is the constant complaint that in factories, in stores, on railroads and at the out-door trades men constantly incur needless risk to life and limb because they have grown careless of danger through long familiarity with the particular work at which they are engaged. An accident, perhaps a fatal one, is the logical result.

But the natural tendency to carelessness is not wholly to blame. Competitive demands or personal necessities often drive men to take undue chances of accident. They feel they are compelled to make a showing in competition with their fellow workmen or lose the job. Too often that is the impelling cause for accident. The fact of the matter is we have geared up our way of doing things to too high a speed. The conservation that will prevent accidents will not come with the mere education of the man to seek safety first unless that is to be adopted as the general principle upon which business is to be done. The individual can hardly be expected to seek safety first while the world is continually calling for more speed in everything. Safety first would be an excellent general rule to adopt in pretty much everything that concerns human kind.

It will doubtless be difficult for J. Pierpont Morgan to sympathize from personal experience with the popular cry against the high cost of living. Mr. Morgan says he contributed $150,000 to the republican campaign fund in 1904, got off with a paltry $50,000 in 1908, and up to date there is no evidence of his having contributed a nickel to the present campaign. Things are certainly easier for Mr. Morgan, anyway.

The idea of a big home-coming week in Fort Wayne a year hence is not half bad, and it could be made the occasion of the greatest celebration the city has ever known. Former Fort Wayne people are scattered almost to the ends of the earth, and it's an open secret that a good many of them would welcome an opportunity or an excuse to get "back home" again.

The test of anchored bituminous paving with a concrete base in Fort Wayne will be watched with a good deal of interest. The pavement that will last long enough and stand up under the wear sufficiently to be entirely satisfactory has not yet been discovered. And perhaps it never will be.

Huntertown may have been a little slow in civic spirit in past years but it is certainly showing signs of awakening now. A substantial little state bank will open its doors for business there within a few weeks.

BUSINESS AND WORLD PEACE.

(Erie Times.)

The first emphasis of the International Chamber of Commerce meeting held the past week at Boston was given to the subject of world peace. If the foreign policies of the nations of the world were in the hands of the business men, instead of kings, emperors, nobles and politicians, the forts could all be sold for summer resorts, and the warships used for Sunday school excursions.

The incessant friction between European powers keeps the entire world stirred up, it leads to enormous expenditures for the latest frills in armament, not merely across the water, but in this country. The standard of our naval expenditure is closely determined by what England and Germany are doing.

Foreign wars have always been a favorite political trick of the old world rulers. When social discontent reached a high level, the people out of work and not enough bread for the hungry, the patriotic fervor of a war against a hated traditional foe would always convert political agitators into soldiers.

If the police choke down free speech among revolutionaries and street corner demagogues, the spirit of rebellion and anarchy is multiplied. If you send them abroad with the troops, they may be killed off, and anyway they forget all about their political wrongs.

Of late years, the enormous cost of war and growing sentiment against it as an act of folly, have usually led to the substitution of diplomacy for fighting. But the cost of armaments has become a staggering burden on the working man, in this country as well as abroad, and in spite of diplomacy it increases each year.

The power of business has for several decades been the best preventive of war. Many times when kings and diplomats would have found war the solution that would have cost them least, the bankers have stepped in with their refusal to finance any such destructive proposition.

In every department of government, the one problem of the day in the United States and Europe is to reduce government to a business instead of a political basis. When that time comes, two nations will no more think of going to war than the grocer will think of collecting his pay by thrashing a delinquent customer.

PRODIGIOUS WASTERS.

(Indianapolis Star.)

The indictment as returned against the American people by the conservation congress pronounces us the greatest wasters the world has ever seen. And the pity of it is the indictment is good. We have absolutely wasted, without a pfennig's gain, billions and billions of this country's enormous resources. Our waste of fuel coals will run into the millions every year; our waste of natural gas, a few years back, and even now, would furnish enough power to run the business of the world for a century. The billions on top of billions of feet of lumber that we have wasted would have supplied the world for ages to come, but we never gave it a thought.

In bird and animal life the waste and wanton destruction would have appalled any other nation but this. The American bison was absolutely hunted from the earth in a few years, dropping from the millions to a few hundred now in parks. The wild pigeon, which flew from one end of America to the other in droves that darkened the sun as they passed, was slaughtered unceasingly until today $5,000 is said to be offered for a pair of the birds. Tillers of the soil in many states have delved and dug on farms until they extracted every bit of productive element from the earth, and the abandoned farms stand in mute testimony to man's infinite prodigiality—and ignorance.

And greater waste still has been in the careless and ceaseless destruction of human life—not in war and murder, but in smug contentment and the selfishness of our own existence. But thanks to an awakened conscience and a quickened intelligence, we are gradually getting away from the epithet of "wasters." It is such organizations as the conservation congress and kindred societies that are doing much to conserve, not only natural resources, but our energies and efficiencies and lives. What has been wasted can not be utilized, but we can prevent such enormous drains on our life and resources in the future. It is a work that touches every human being in America.

WHEN IS EGG DECOMPOSED?

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

Most people recognize that there can be a great difference between fresh and strictly fresh and new laid eggs, but they have hardly imagined that there could be any controversy over a decomposed product. Usually it announces itself. Yet the supreme court of the United States has been asked to rule when is an egg decomposed. The department of agriculture enforcing the pure food law insists that an egg is decomposed when it is rotten. The point arises over the provision of the law that an article should be deemed adulterated when decomposed. Dealers appealed on the plea that congress has not defined "decomposed." The department went back to the common law which held that an egg was decomposed when it was rotten. Whereupon the egg men wanted to know whether a cheese was liable to seizure. This stumped the department and the supreme court will now be expected to settle it.

Whatever way the supreme tribunal decides the technical point it is safe to say that if the issue was put up to a recall there would be a unanimous vote that the law should bar any egg that there was any doubt about.

NEW STYLES IN MONEY.

(New York Tribune.)

Preparations for revolutionizing the appearance of the government's paper money have gone ahead quietly, and before it knows it the public will be handling the new notes. People are likely to be critical of sudden changes in style on the part of old acquaintances, and possibly the new issues will be condemned by some simply because they lack the homely familiarity to which the public eye has been long accustomed. Modifications in the designs of our gold coins have called forth a good deal of excited protest, and congress not long ago rescinded a change order by the treasury department. Yet the average man sees gold coins only at long intervals, while he lives on terms of daily intimacy with the greenbacks. The changes in the outward aspect of these close companions are therefore likely to excite universal comment, and in that comment it would be foolish to expect at first a general note of commendation.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance association will be held on Tuesday, October 8, 1912, at the assembly room in the court house, commencing at 10 a. m., for the transaction of such business as may properly come before the meeting.

Harmless Way to Darken the Hair

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not now the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is loosing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cents bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

..Lyrachord Symphonia..

A Supplemental Device Electrically Developing Latent Tonal Resources in the Pianoforte heretofore unknown.

The LYRACHORD SYMPHONIA is founded on a principle that is entirely new in music

Orchestral, Pipe Organ and Vox humana effects and the tone of strings and wood winds can be produced. The musical effect is difficult to describe and can be appreciated only on hearing.

In conjunction with the Player Piano the "LYRACHORD" demonstrates its most wonderful and interesting capabilities with the aid of the Player. Orchestral and Solo effects are not only possible to the novice, but can be rendered to satisfy the most critical musical ear.

Musicians who have heard the "LYRACHORD SYMPHONIA," or rather have heard the piano amplified by this wonderful apparatus, declare that marvelous possibilities are apparent, which will tremendously advance the position of the piano as a musical instrument.

IN THE CHURCHES

WILL INSTALL THE NEW PASTOR

The Services Held Sunday at the Christ Lutheran Church.

THE DAY'S SERMONS

The installation as pastor of the Christ Lutheran church of Rev. Henry Clement Hadley will take place at the church next Sunday, the services incident to it being held in the forenoon and evening. The sermon in the forenoon at 10:45, to the people, will be delivered by Rev. A. B. Garman, of Auburn, and the sermon in the evening at 7:30, to the pastor, by Rev. F. A. Dressel, of Elkhart, the president of the Northern Indiana Synod of the denomination. The installation proper takes place at the evening service.

REV. HENRY C. HADLEY,
New Pastor of the Christ Lutheran Church.

Rev. Mr. Hadley and his family, Mrs. Hadley and a bright little son, have been in the city this week and are at home in the parsonage adjoining the church. The pastor was present during the sessions of the Women's Missionary district conference held at the church this week and delivered a most interesting address on the closing day.

Rev. Mr. Hadley is a most pleasing and interesting pulpit speaker and an active church worker, and has been successful in his ministry of fourteen years. He is a graduate of the Wittenberg college at Springfield, O. He comes here from Cleveland, O., where for ten years he was pastor of the Christian Endeavor Memorial church in that city. Mentioning his call to Fort Wayne, the Cleveland Plaindealer of last Monday said:

"When Rev. Mr. Hadley assumed charge of the church here in 1902 he found it with a small membership struggling with an indebtedness. Within five years he made it self-supporting. A debt of $5,000 was paid and 296 members were added to the church. He is a mission church worker. In the ten years of his ministry he has not only placed his own church in a prosperous shape, but has been the means of establishing three other mission Lutheran churches in different parts of Cleveland."

MEET AT MIDDLEBURY.

Missionary Society Selects Place for Next Convention.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Lutheran church, at the closing sessions of this year's convention yesterday afternoon at the Christ's Lutheran church, selected Middlebury, Ind., as the place for holding the convention in October of next year.

MISSION HOUSE NOT REMOVED

German Reformed College and Seminary Remains at Franklin, Wis.

AN EXCITING DEBATE

Revs. J. H. Bosch, Ph. Vollmer and Frank Ruf and Mr. Earnest Bueker, of this city, who were at Franklin, Wis., attending the sessions of the Reformed synod of the northwest, have returned home. The synod was in session for six days and was largely attended.

One of the most important matters discussed and acted on was that concerning the removal of the college and seminary of the denomination, known as "The Mission House," from Franklin, where it is now located, and has been for years, to Sheboygan, Wis. On this question there was a most heated debate, lasting a day and a half, the final result being that the question of the removal will go over to the next session of the synod, which will be held at Lafayette, Ind., in October of 1913.

There was a very strong sentiment for the removal of the mission house to Sheboygan, that being a city of 25,000 or 30,000. The business men of Sheboygan had offered a bonus of $25,000 to the synod for its removal. The site would have to be purchased, twenty acres along the shores of Lake Michigan, a most beautiful location. These considerations won the support of many delegates.

Finally when a vote was reached on the question of removal to Sheboygan it was carried by a majority of 26. The vote was 162 in favor and 138 against. By synods the vote in detail was as follows: Synod of the east, 38 in favor, 6 against; Central synod, 76 in favor, 13 against; synod of the Northwest, the synod in which Fort Wayne is located; 48 in favor, 119 against.

The vote was reached late in the afternoon and created great excitement, everybody being anxious about the result. There was great disappointment on the part of the defeated delegates. Hence when the evening session came a resolution was introduced asking for a reconsideration of the vote.

This resolution stated that whereas the synod of the Northwest, in which the mission was located, had voted so overwhelmingly against removal and had contributed so much in the way of financial support to the institution and furnishing it with students, that it was unwise to act against their wishes. The resolution favored a delay of a year and asked that the vote on removal be reconsidered at the next session of the synod, to be held in 1913. This resolution was carried.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes are as good as any man wants, in quality, style, finish, fit; they'll satisfy the man who can afford to have the best of everything; the prices at which we sell them will satisfy the man who thinks he'd better economize a little.

You'll get here in buying clothes, the fruit of many years of steady progress in fine clothes-making. Ready-made clothes have been brought to a stage of perfection today by the mark of such makers as

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

Read-made clothes are so good now; the fabric are so high-grade; the tailoring is so thoroughly good, mostly handwork; the styles and models are so smart and fashionable; the fit is so easy to get right, that there's really no good sense in having clothes made to measure.

There's the economy, too; some men don't care for economy in the price of clothes; but when you can get at $15.00, $18.00, or $20.00, or $25.00 as good a garment as any tailor can make for $30.00, or $35.00, or $40.00, what's the use of paying the difference?

We're selling these fine clothes at easy prices; there's no way to get better goods; no matter what you pay. You can easily pay the same prices for clothes not as good.

JURY GETS DAMAGE CASE.

All Arguments Closed This Morning in Circuit Court.

All testimony in the $10,000 damage case of Carpenter against Contractor John Suelzer, was finished this morning and the jury went out about three o'clock. A verdict is expected late this afternoon. Carpenter as a laborer was injured while working for Suelzer, who had the contract for remodeling the Old National bank building.

As yet County Treasurer J. Herman Bueter has not sold the $60,000 of stone road bonds. The bonds do not begin bearing interest until November 15 and while the bonding companies are keenly anxious to purchase them, they are holding off in the hope of getting them later and retaining the use of the purchase money until the latest possible day.

Miss Aimee Phillips was the recipient of a very pretty shower last evening when Miss Margaret Shulze, of East Woodland avenue, entertained in her honor. Covers were laid for fourteen at a beautifully decorated table. This is the second of a series of parties to be given in honor of Miss Phillips before her marriage to Herbert Shulze, son of Mrs. Elliott G. Shulze, which will take place at Miss Phillips' home in Marion, some time this month. On Tuesday evening Miss Mary Philley entertained with a delightful affair in honor of Miss Phillips, at her home south of the city. This evening there will be a club affair in honor of Miss Phillips, who is a great favorite with the young people she has met during her few months' residence here.

Miss Dorothy McCauliff has gone to Chicago for a few days' visit.

Frank J. Bott has returned to Logansport after a few days' visit here with relatives.

Mrs. W. F. Pfeiffer, of Clyde, O., is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. F. Bennett, of South Calhoun street.

Miss Elizabeth Summers has returned to Chicago after visiting her mother and sister for several days.

Mrs. Richard Coke Marshall, jr., left today for Washington, D. C., after a few days' visit here with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Peters, of Shawnee place.

Michael Nelligan has returned to Chicago after a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Catherine Summers and the Misses Mary and Ella Nelligan.

Mrs. James M. Henry and daughter, Miss Nellie, of South Broadway, returned today from a visit with friends in Wabash.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schaich, of Spy Run avenue, are going to Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the winter and expect to leave next Wednesday.

Miss Ethel Doud and her guest, Miss Lottia Smith, have returned to Chicago, after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Doud.

Mrs. H. W. Fay, of Chicago, who will arrive in the city tomorrow from New York, will be a guest until Sunday afternoon of Judge and Mrs. Walter Olds.

Miss Margaret Boger, of Spy Run avenue, will leave tomorrow morning for a visit of some length in Ohio and will make stops in Carey, Adrian and Tiffin.

Miss Gladys McKeeman, of 2913 Hanna street, has returned from Bucyrus, O., where she had been visiting for a month with Mrs. H. F. Dauer and family.

Miss Edith Nickell, of Lake avenue, left at noon today for New York city to continue her musical studies and voice work under the direction of Oscar Saenger.

Miss Frances Willey, of San Diego, Cal., is in Indianapolis, a newspaper representative at the National Conservation Congress. Miss Willey's home was until recent years in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Harper have returned from Rome City, where they spent the summer, and Miss Helen R. Harper has gone to Ann Arbor to visit college friends for a few days.

Mrs. M. Mangan, of West Wayne street, is entertaining a company of relatives who are her sister, Mrs. Miller, of Lima, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray, of Canton, O. Mr. Gray is a nephew of Mrs. Mangan.

Mrs. S. K. Blair is expecting her sister, Mrs. John Hesse, of Denver, Col., to arrive here the early part of next week. Mrs. Hesse will make a short visit as she will be on her way to Boston, Mass.

The Eta Alpha club will meet this evening at the home of Miss Ethel Laurentz, of East Wayne street. The new members who are to be initiated are Misses Gladys Becker, Lillian Wilding, Gladys Allen and Evelyn Certia.

Mrs. Sarah Mills, of Chicago, who has been a visitor in the city for several days, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Victor Russell to Toledo, O., on their return after a visit here. From Toledo, Mrs. Mills will return to Chicago.

Many friends here of Dr. Jesse B. Higgins, of Lagro, and his sister, Mrs. Alice Higgins Taylor, will learn with interest of Mrs. Taylor's recent marriage to Mr. Lee Byrnes. The wedding took place in St. Patrick's church at Lagro. The Higgins family lived in the south part of Fort Wayne for a number of years and previously to then in Peru, where the family had been one of prominence for many years.

Mrs. Brainard Rorison and daughter, Miss Arda Bates Rorison, of New York city, have gone to Indianapolis after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shambaugh, of West Berry street. Many Fort Wayne people remember the Rorison family with much pleasure and it is possible that some do not know that the death of Mr. Rorison occurred last March. The remains had been kept in a vault in Indianapolis and Mrs. Rorison and her daughter came to be present at the interment in the same city. Previous to the year of '91 Mr. Rorison was a well known business man here and was connected with the Fort Wayne Electric company.

Mrs. Frances H. Robertson went to Indianapolis yesterday to attend the Fourth National Conservation congress now in session in that city. Mrs. O. N. Guldlin, another delegate to the congress, was one of the guests at a large dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lockwood on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Robertson will be the guest at the Claypool of Mrs. Matthew Scott, president general of the national organization of Daughters of the American Revolution and over the week-end will be the guest of Mrs. E. C. Atkins. All three of the ladies will go to Lafayette on Monday to attend the state convention of Daughters.

A surprise party was given on Wednesday evening in honor of Charles Lyons at his home in Lakeside, as it was the anniversary of his birth. Music and cards were enjoyed and after those pleasures the company stepped into the diningroom where a delicious lunch was partaken of. Ferns and yellow and white chrysanthemums formed a beautiful decoration. Those who were present at this good time and who took part in the surprise were Mr. and Mrs. Till, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leikauf, Mr. and Mrs. Copper, Mr. Grimme, Misses Edna Leikauf, Clara Hughes, Bertha Hughes, Josephine Sargent, Mary VanHouten and Edith Schmitt.

AMERICA'S PRETTIEST WORKING GIRLS.

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Any of our readers, walking the streets in the morning or noon or evening hours, need not be informed that Fort Wayne has more pretty working women and working girls than any city in the land. However there are plenty of them in every city and for the sake of comparison not to say contrast, The Sentinel has collected the photographs of many of the PRETTIEST WORKING WOMEN IN AMERICA. We have secured the pictures from responsible and discriminating editors in a large number of cities—one young lady pre-eminently beautiful in each city—and we ask our readers to judge as to the comparative prettiness of these splendid examples of typical American womanhood.)

NO. 3.

This is Miss Ruth Weber, stenographer, who has been declared one of the prettiest working girls employed in Cincinnati. Her home is at 824 Park avenue, Newport.

Misner—Smitley.

Miss Claudine Smitley and Mr. Seymour Misner were quietly married on Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. D. H. Guild, at the parsonage of the First M. E. church. The bride and groom left the city for a few days' trip and on their return will go to housekeeping in their own home in East Creighton avenue. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue cloth with blouse to match in color and a black velvet hat trimmed with white plumes.

The Caldron Prize Contest.

The editors of The Caldron, the pamphlet published by the Senior class of the Fort Wayne high school, at regular intervals every year, has a new feature concerning its work. It is to be a prize contest and prizes will be given for best manuscripts submitted during the first semester under certain conditions. H. C. Underwood offers the prizes, ten and five dollars respectively. The stories are to be limited in words to 2,500 and must be at least 800 words long. The manuscripts are to be written in ink, and name, room number and class must be stated on the outer sheet. The best stories submitted will be published in the Caldron. As an incentive to literary excellence in language, with such observance of good spelling, correct punctuation and clear handwriting as every high school pupil should be capable of showing, the prize contest is likely to be an example worthy of considerable attention.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Exceeding Speed Limit Responsible for "Don't Lie to Your Wife."

If Campbell B. Casad, the author of "Don't Lie to Your Wife," which will be seen at the Majestic theater four days of next week hadn't been arrested for speeding his automobile, that merry semi-musical farce would never have been written; like all newspaper men when cornered in some complication, he has made the most of the opportunity, as rapidly as the complications of a humorous nature occurred to him. The Author while waiting for a bondsman, jotted them down, weaving them ultimately into one of the best farces that has been offered to the theater going public in a long time.

Mr. Lewis' comedy was always rich, but with what Mr. Casad has supplied him in this farce, the comedian is seen at his very best, and his friends say this vehicle suits him better than anything he has ever starred in.

Irish Songs and Mirth.

The attraction at the Majestic theater next Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be "Rollicking Shannon," a new Celtic play, presented with excellent stage embellishments in regard to scenery and properties, the scenes used being taken from the district of Killarney. It will also introduce John O'Donnell, the young Irish actor and tenor singer, as the jolly, romping Irish lad, with his heart full of love and song. Mr. O'Donnell possesses a rich, robust tenor voice which is heard to advantage in the old melodies of Erin, as well as new songs written specially for this presentation.

IDEAL THEATER.

"Twenty Years in Sing Sing" will be shown at the Ideal theater today and tomorrow. Mr. J. P. Mollet, state right owner of this feature, has just returned from a three months' tour in Michigan, showing to crowded houses everywhere. Numerous requests have been made to Mr. Mollet to show this film here in this city again. Arrangements have just been completed with the manager of the Ideal theater, formerly known as the Casino, to repeat this film today and tomorrow. This will give you all another opportunity to see this show. This film comes in three reels and shows every feature of prison life. Behind the description of the prison and the life of the prisoners lies an interesting story which is well laid and well brought out. To even give you a hint of this heart-throbbing story would be to spoil it for you.—Adv.

LIVER REGULATOR.

Tomatoes are a prime regulator of the liver, and a blood cooler. They contain a minute quantity of vegetable equivalent for calomel that acts directly upon the bilious secretions. But it is so gentle no unpleasant effects are produced.

One acknowledged authority maintains that the tomato should be eaten raw if the real benefits of the vegetable are to be learned. Cooking, he maintains, naturalizes the calomel's effect.

Children should be encouraged to eat the pretty egg and plum tomatoes, which are used for pickling, as a fruit. They are pleasant to the taste and highly medicinal.

The skins of tomatoes are not wholesome and should be stripped from the pulp when it is prepared for eating, either cooked or raw.

ROYAL
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Cooking is a matter which concerns the whole family, and under modern methods and conveniences it is made so attractive the whole family is becoming interested, if not taking part in it.

"These biscuits are delicious; this cake is excellent," says the father. "I made them," says the daughter, and both father and daughter beam with pleasure.

It is a crime, with our modern agencies, helps and facilities, to have soggy biscuit, or wooden cake, or leaden pastry.

Royal Baking Powder has made home baking a success, a pleasure and a profit, and the best cooking today the world over is done with its aid.

CARRIE WATTS.

After having lived sixteen years under the impression that her mother was dead, Carrie Watts, an actress, is going to leave the stage, fame and a good big salary for a home on an humble Kentucky farm.

Miss Watts was taken from the arms of her mother when a child of three years and was subsequently reported dead. Like information about the death of her mother was conveyed to the girl and for sixteen years each had been mourning for the other.

The mother later married and is now the wife of Zel Amatyr, a storekeeper of Winchester, Ky. Shortly after she was deprived of the baby the mother received word that it had died. Ultimately Miss Watts went on the stage.

It was not until she came to San Francisco recently, where she has been residing and earning her living, that she received any inkling that her mother was alive. One day a letter was received by an old friend of her father with the information that her mother had married a second time and was the wife of a well-to-do Kentuckian.

The information contained in the letter was so unexpected that the girl at first refused to believe it. Agitated by doubt she sat down and communicated with the woman mentioned by her informant, telling her everything about herself that she could remember since she was a little girl, and a letter came back from the mother claiming her as her daughter.

OLD FLAG PLEADS FOR SHADE TREES

Colors Will Have to Come Down If City Decides to Use the Axe.

PEOPLE WANT THEM

Alameda, Cal., Oct. 4.—Old Glory flies from every tree on Liberty avenue, Alameda. The 120 flags are a mute appeal to the city council to spare the ax.

Members of sixty families in the new residence thoroughfare have signed a memorial to the council praying tht the trees be allowed to stand. The council committee is viewing the avenue that a report may be made on the petition at the next meeting.

When the members of the committee appeared at the head of the avenue junction with High street the street presented a holiday scene. Under the green foliage of every tree the tri-colors fluttered a welcome to the city fathers.

The trees are of the acacia variety anad have been in the avenue, extending from High street to Feruside boulevard, for twenty years.

A year ago the first lot in Liberty avenue was sold and today every piece of ground on both sides of the tree shaded street is occupied with a home. Although the avenue has been open for more than twenty years, the city engineer discovered only recently that the curbing survey was wrong. The engineer said it must be moved inward toward the lots three inches on each side, and as the trees would prevent this the order to cut down the trees was issued.

There is not a home in Liberty avenue but whose owner was induced to buy, partly, because of the splendid tree decoration of the street. So a unanimous protest was lodged with the council and Old Glory is wrapping her folds about the giant trunks to influence a verdict of "let the trees stand."

STATE MAY CURB RIGHT TO MARRY

Want Law to Limit Number Who May Perform the Ceremony.

PROPOSE A PENALTY

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 4.—The next Kansas legislature is to be asked to pass a law limiting the number of persons who may perform marriage ceremonies. From satistics gathered by the Kansas Association of Probate Judges there are at least 3,000 couples living in Kansas who are legally married, but who could not prove it if they were called upon to furnish the records.

The judges believe this condition has come about through the laxity existing in permitting so many people to perform marriage ceremonies. The law gives the right to judge of the district and probate courts, justices of the peace and clergymen. In many cases the ministers did not report the marriages, but the greatest fault apparently lies with the justices of the peace and the judges of district courts.

Fail to Make Reports.

The law requires every person who performs a marriage ceremony to make a report to the probate court. The records gathered by the judges through the association show that from sixteen to two hundred marriages have not been reported in the last ten years in every county, the number not reported depending on the size of the counties.

In Shawnee county there are 167 unreported marriages and in Sedgwick county there are 189 cases in which licenses were issued but not returned.

The matter was brought to the attention of the probate judges by the United States pension office. Three cases have appeared within the last five weeks in which a soldier's widow will not be able to collect a pension because the fact of her marriage is unrecorded. In two of these cases the couple went to a minister's house to be married, and there were no friends to witness the ceremony.

Would Impose Heavy Penalty.

The ministers neglected to make the report of the marriage and there is no record to show the persons ever were married, although dozens of people will swear to the belief. The ministers have since died. In the other case the minister is still living and is willing to make a report, but he cannot remember the exact date, and the government will not accept such a report. There are many other court proceedings where records of the marriage are necessary. The pobate judges want to restrict the marrying business to probate judges and clergymen and then make the regulations so strict and the penalty so heavy the ministers will not fail to make the proper reports.

Here is a woman who speakers from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

The Daven-o

The dictionary of popular opinion says the word "DAVEN-O" means the highest grade upholstered davenport, having concealed within it a genuine metal bed.

This remarkable invention stands alone in the world as a successful combination of bed and davenport, with absolutely no sacrifice of appearance or comfort either.

Economy of Space---Yet Solid Comfort

The principle upon which the DAVEN-O is constructed is fully protected by many patents and positively cannot be found in any other combination bed. It is actually a full-size, real bed for constant use (not for emergencies only), to all effects like a stationary bed, so concealed in a luxurious davenport that even an expert could not detect its double use.

On account of the perfection of the DAVEN-O as a davenport it has gone into the finest homes in America. The DAVEN-O is simply indispensable in small quarters, and no matter how many rooms you have there are always occasions when an extra bed is needed.

Remember the points that make it different from all others:

1. Working parts—Nothing but a hinge. Cannot get out of order.
2. You do not sleep on the upholstery, but on regular springs with thick mattress.
3. It is not to be made up at night, but in the morning, like any other bed.
4. All bed clothes, even pillows, are retained in bed, not stored away.
5. The bed part is made entirely of metal—therefore, perfectly sanitary.

A thousand other advantages will come to your mind as you look at it and compare it with other makes.

CAT SAVES CHILD FROM DOG.

Tabby Gets in Path of Supposed Rabid Mongrel Canine.

New York, Oct. 4.—A gray and white striped kitten that happened to get in the way saved a child from the attack of a supposed rabid dog in Newark, N. J. The mongrel ran yelping and frothing through the streets, killing a cat and biting four dogs. The animal, chased by a crowd, ran south on Livingston street to Waverly avenue.

The four-year-old child of Charles Martin was at play on the sidewalk in front of her father's butcher shop. The animal made for her, but as it was about to leap the kitten darted between the dog and child.

The dog, while killing the kitten, was stunned by a blow on the head from Henry Balzer, of 27 Livingston street. Before it could recover Policeman Clark dispatched it with a bullet.

MRS CASH LOSES NO CASH.

Wealthy Widow Thwarts Attempt to Get Money From Her.

Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 4.—Mrs. E. C. Cash, a wealthy widow, filled a small box of bogus money recently, after she received a letter demanding $150, placed it at the designated street corner and called the police. They were laboring over their apparently disabled automobile when Frank L. Zemp, accompanied by his little girl, passed that way a few hours later. Zemp picked the box up from the ground and was promptly arrested. He disclaimed guilt and said he thought he saw a cigarette in the box.

Zemp, who is assistant superintendent of the Southern Power company here, came originally from Camden, S. C., and has been in the company's employ for several years at Charlotte and Greenville.

BASEBALL

EARL SYKES HAS BEEN PURCHASED

Will Return to Central and Play First Base for the Vets.

PLAYED AT ATLANTA

Dayton, O., Oct. 4.—Earl Sykes, who played first base for the Dayton club in 1910, and who was sent to Atlanta after he had been drafted by the Brooklyn management, has been purchased by the owners of the Vets and will be back at his old job next season.

His playing here was made possible when President Elmer Redelle, of the local club, received word from the management of the Montgomery team that the Dayton offer had been accepted. The big fellow thus comes back to the town where he played wonderful ball and where he should repeat his great work in 1913.

Sykes was a member of the greatest team that ever represented Dayton in the Central league. The 1910 Vets was a better aggregation than the 1911 pennant winners, and had it not been for a slight weakness of the pitching staff and unfortunate injuries to Catchers Martin and O'Brien at the critical stage of the race the chances are the Knollers would have won the flag. Sykes played first with Nee at second, Stark at short and Ragen at third, an infield that could rank with many in class B ball. Sykes was one of the stars of this inner circle, in the opinion of many the greatest player on the team. He handled throws at first in fine style, was clever on ground balls, could hit and was the fastest man on the team at circling the bases.

At the end of the 1910 season he was drafted by Brooklyn, and then sent to Atlanta without a trial. Earl tried in every way to free himself from his southern obligation, but was unsuccessful and was forced to report. In 1912 he played great ball for Atlanta, but the southern climate seemed to get him, as it has gotten many another ball player, and this season he got off to a poor start. He was sent to Montgomery, but played little ball there, and the southern magnates realized that he would never accomplish much in that part of the country. Realizing the need of a high class first baseman and knowing the ability of Sykes, the Dayton management put in a bid for him, and he will start in building up a new infield.

Harry Martin, who was a member of the 1910 Vets, and who knows whereof he speaks, said this morning, when informed of the deal: "Earl is one of the best natural ball players with whom I was ever associated, and he ought to prove a great fellow for the Vets next season. With him on the first base job, the Dayton management will have the opportunity of developing youngsters for the other infield positions, something that will be necessary with Benson and Dobard among the missing. We had some mighty high class ball players here two years ago, but none of them had anything on Earl."

SCRIBES FAILED TO SEE PITCHER

Laughed When M'Graw Picked Jeff Tesreau Member of Staff.

HAD THE RIGHT IDEA

New York, Oct. 4.—When the Giants went down to Marlin, Tex., last spring McGraw took along big Jeff Tesreau, who the spring before had belonged to New York, but who was turned over to the Toronto team in the Eastern league.

In the spring of 1911, Tesreau didn't show very much. That is, no one but McGraw could notice that he displayed any promise. As soon as the Giants returned home the farming out process started and Jeff was shipped to the Canadian city.

Toronto finished third last year. The club wound up with a winning percentage of .614. Tesreau's average was five points less than his club—.609.

He had been a rank in-and-outer and New York fans and scribes, although they realized that McGraw needed pitchers badly, were confident that the little manager was wasting a lot of valuable time and good money in taking Tesreau to Marlin a second time.

A few days before the Giants broke camp and started back north McGraw asked the war correspondents with the team which young player looked the best to them. And not one of them picked Tesreau.

"Well, you fellows may know how to write baseball," said McGraw, "but you don't know a ball player when you see one, if you don't think Tesreau is the best of this bunch."

They all gave McGraw the merry ha, ha, but he who laughs last is supposed to have the most enjoyment out of said giggle, and today McGraw kids the Gotham scribes at every opportunity, for Tesreau has not only made good, but won the National league pennant for New York also.

Where would the Giants be today if Tesreau's 18 victories had not been forthcoming in his 24 outs?

McGraw, of course, deserves a heap of credit. In fact, more than Tesreau, Marquardt, Mathewson, Meyers, Doyle or any other man. But he is manager—Tesreau, of all the players, carries the blue ribbon.

McGraw's generalship has stood forth conspicuous in the way he has handled his three great pitchers this season. Marquard bore the burden through the early days, while Tesreau was developing; then when Rube had shot his bolt and served his purpose, Tesreau was ready to take up his work.

Mathewson? Still a wonderful pitcher, and the man who was required to bridge over the spaces when neither Marquardt nor Tesreau could go in.

CITY SERIES NOTES.

The city series is popular with the fans, and will be a regular event. If the Magnolias are defeated next Sunday, this year's series will terminate, and the Shamrocks will take on one of the other city teams next season. The Mags will fight hard Sunday as victory would give them a chance to face the Shamrocks again next year.

Jack Raldy will have League park in shape for the go, which will be called at 2:30.

There is more real rooting at a city series than is usually seen at league games. The rooting at the first game was strenuous, and the brand to be heard at the next promises to be even more so. Every amateur club in the city is represented at the games, and most of them pull to see the Magnolias win. But the trolley leaguers expect the stands will be against them, and are not affected by the outbursts of the fans.

Diederich and Uebelhoer for the Magnolias, Cocholt or Blakey and Hoffer for the Shamrocks will be the batteries.

John Dornick will alternate with Gough in refereeing the game.

KILBANE CHANGES MIND.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 4.—Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Eddie O'Keefe are matched today to meet in New York Oct. 14. After their last fight Sept. 1 Kilbane vowed he never would fight again in New York. The New York newspapers emphasized his defects. Against O'Keefe Johnny will try to show he is a real champion.

FORMAL AWARD IS MADE.

At a meeting of the directors of the Fort Wayne Shop league, held last night, the pennant was formally awarded to Manager Al Ringle, of the Pennsylvania club.

OLD INJURY GIVES TROUBLE.

FEAR FORT WAYNE WOMAN IS DYING

Mrs. Benjamin Richey, Hurt in Wreck, May Not Survive Injuries.

IS NOW AT BATAVIA

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Benjamin Richey, the Fort Wayne woman who sustained a broken wrist and injuries to her head in the wreck yesterday near Crittenden, N. Y., of a Lake Shore passenger and freight train, is believed to be dying at the Batavia, N. Y., hospital. It was at first believed she was not seriously injured.

The original report had it that Mrs. Richey was taken to the Buffalo Emergency hospital, but she was found in the Batavia hospital today. Her condition is more critical, and aside from her statement that she lives in Fort Wayne nothing concerning her relatives can be ascertained. She is presumed to have been returning from a visit to friends in New York city.

Inquiry in Fort Wayne today failed to locate relatives of Mrs. Richey.

SHOT BY SON-IN-LAW.

Boonville, Ind., Oct. 4.—Ben Dorsey, aged 55, a farmer living near Tennyson, was shot in the abdomen and fatally wounded today by his son-in-law, Sherman Simpson, aged 30. The shooting was the result of a family quarrel. Sheriff Phillips has gone to the scene to arrest Simpson.

PUNTS AND PASSES.

Under the direction of Coaches Ritter and Ward high school football candidates are working hard for places on the eleven and a stiff practice is planned for Lawton park to-night. The regular schedule will be opened either at Ligonier or Wabash one week from tomorrow, and games will be booked with the best high school teams in this vicinity.

Coach Sheldon put his Indiana squad through a grilling workout yesterday at Bloomington, and pronounced his men fit for the battle with Chicago university tomorrow. In the meantime Coach Stagg is highly elated at the work of his club, and is preparing to scalp the Indians.

Illinois Wesleyan is booked to open the season at Urbana, Ill., against Illinois and both teams have had their final hard practice and each of them is confident.

Kelleher and Bockne, of the Notre Dame varsity squad, are suffering from injuries but can be used in the game against St. Valters tomorrow if it is found necessary.

It developed at Laport that football has practically been eliminated from the curriculum of Indiana high schools by the announcement of Prof. Leffille, prominent in high school athletics in this state, that the ban has been placed on the game by authorities in a large majority of the towns and cities. One hundred letters asking for dates have been met with the statement that teams have been disbanded and very few schedules will be attempted. This action of the Indiana school authorities is believed to be due to the many injuries received in the game in the past by players.

Captain Hutchinson, O'Brien, Oliphant and Glossop will not play with Purdue in the Depauw game Saturday. The absence of the regulars will greatly handicap the boilermakers and prevent a large score being rolled up.

O'TOOLE PAID FOR HIMSELF.

Money Spent by Pittsburgh Has Been Returned at Gate.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 4.—While it is undoubtedly true that Pitcher Marty O'Toole, of the Pirates, has proven a disappointment in that it was naturally expected that a $22,500 twirler should never lose a game, the former St. Paul star occasionally shows marked ability, though he does not appear to be a consistent performer. So far as the investment in O'Toole is concerned it proved a good one. The Pittsburgh club got back much more than it paid for the pitcher last fall, and he is still an attraction these days. When Pittsburgh bought O'Toole it was for the purpose of making one final effort to win the pennant. Had O'Toole come through as was expected last fall the Pirates might have beaten the Giants to the wire. It was a gambling chance and, while no pennant was won, it was not a losing game at that.

BOWLING SEASON STARTS TONIGHT

SCHEDULE GIVEN OUT

Schedule for Tonight.

Bowsers and Western Gas—Alleys 1 and 2.

Pennsylvania and Electro-Technics—Alleys 3 and 4.

Wayne Knits and General Electric—Alleys 7 and 8.

Wabash and Daily News—Postponed.

Members of the Manufacturers' Bowling league will start the season at the Metropolitan alleys tonight and will be the first of the local organizations to get into the field.

There are eight clubs in the league this season, and all the games will be bowled on Friday night of each week, a new departure agreed upon so that the bowlers will all work at the same time and will get better acquainted.

The league had a most successful season last year as a six-club organization and some good bowlers were developed and most of them are back in the game. The Kerr Murray and Bass foundry clubs did not enter the race this year. The schedule has been completed by Secretary J. Ora Goff, whose hard work in connection with the league has been in a measure responsible for its great success.

There will be no league at the Bowser factory this season. Interest in the race fell off last season at the close, and it was determined to abandon organized bowling for a season with the expectation that it will be revived next fall.

It is found difficult to equalize the clubs of the various departments of the big establishment, and this has militated against the success of the league.

The schedule for the Fort Wayne Bowling association has about been completed by the committee and will soon be ready for publication.

BETTING ON RESULTS

Boston, Mass., Oct. 4.—With the first world's series game in this city only five days away, the quotations on single chances to see the initial struggle at Fenway park rose today to $7 bid and $12 asked. Betting on the series has not been particularly brisk in this city. The Red Sox have ruled strong favorites over the Giants from the time the line-up of the world series clubs was definitely settled, but there has been a dearth of New York money.

The Red Sox are expected to return from Philadelphia on Sunday and will have a final workout at Fenway park next Monday.

Several hundred of their most devoted followers will accompany them to New York so that they may hear some Boston cheers floating over the Polo grounds. This band of supporters is busily engaged in learning baseball songs adapted to popular airs. It is expected that this feature will be almost as pronounced as at an intercollegiate football contest.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Hair coming out?—If dry, brittle, thin or your scalp itches and is full of dandruff—Use "Danderine."

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

FAVORITE BASE BURNERS

FOR WINTER COMFORT

It's all in the flues

Madam—

You have seen this poster covering the bill boards of Fort Wayne. It tells a story of vital importance to you—and to your family.

The most dangerous thing in a winter home is a poorly made heating stove. Such stoves have killed more babies than you have any idea of.

Don't expose your children to the ills that result from drafty, damp, cold rooms, cheerlessly warmed by a common heating stove.

Safeguard and protect their health—at least cost—by installing a FAVORITE BASE BURNER that will put Florida atmosphere day and night throughout the upstairs and downstairs of your home. It will fill every corner and hallway with clean, sanitary, luxurious warmth that protects the health and happiness of all the family.

And this cozy warmth will actually cost but half as much as you have paid for a half frozen, unhealthy home in winters past.

By saving much fuel and doing away with repair bills, as well as giving long life to furnishings and decorations—by absence of soot and ash dust—the Favorite Base Burner more than earns its cost.

We will sell you this remarkable base burner for no more than common kinds cost. Why suffer the ills and pay the bills of inferior heating stoves?

We Sell "Favorites" $5.00 Down and $5.00 Per Month

FIGHTING BOB LAFOLLETTE AGAIN TRAINS HIS BATTERIES ON ROOSEVELT.

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 4.—In today's issue of LaFollette's Weekly, Senator LaFollette begins the story of the present presidential campaign and the part played in it by himself and Theodore Roosevelt. "Fighting Bob" has taken off the lid, and tells the truth as he sees it, without sparing any man or mincing words.

Taft, says Senator LaFollette, by his pliant treatment of reactionaries and their policies, soon after his election had made it "utterly impossible for the progressive republicans of the country to support him for renomination." Roosevelt had gone to Africa, after naming Taft as his successor. The Roosevelt administration had come to a close "without leaving to its credit a definite national 'progressive movement have a clearly defined body of issues." There was a recognized progressive movement in Wisconsin, but LaFollette had labored along similar lines in the United States senate without support from Roosevelt. Roosevelt, he said, has been merely a "rhetorical radical."

While the colonel was in Africa, "the republican progressive movement made greater headway than during the entire Roosevelt administration." This was chiefly due to the definiteness of Taft's reactionary course, which brought an equally definite alignment of progressives to combat it. By the time the colonel returned, in June, 1910, the issue was clear.

Progressive leaders were uncertain which side Roosevelt would take. Friends and newspaper men could get no utterance from him. When he landed in New York, his attitude was still unknown, though "every citizen possessing any conviction had taken his stand long before." The progressives wanted the prestige of his popularity, which was then at its zenith.

Here comes a bit of hitherto unpublished history. On June 27, a few days after Roosevelt landed, LaFollette visited Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, the invitation coming from Roosevelt through a Washington correspondent of strong progressive tendencies. The colonel was "very guarded in his statements." LaFollette told him of the progress made in legislation and otherwise during his absence, and tried to sound him on progressive policies. Roosevelt said he had arrived at no settled conviction regarding the initiative and referendum, but favored the recall of judges, particularly federal judges.

Of Taft, the colonel said only this: "Sometimes a man makes a very good lieutenant, but a poor captain."

A little later LaFollette was surprised to find Roosevelt approving of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, in an Outlook editorial.

Then came the New York state campaign, in which Roosevelt dominated the Saratoga convention, and stood for a general reactionary platform which indorsed the Payne-Aldrich bill and Taft. This, says LaFollette, was a staggering blow for progressives throughout the middle and western states.

Roosevelt was very quiet then for many months. Meanwhile, the progressive movement in the nation grew fast. In January, 1911, the National Progressive Republican league was organized at Washington, through LaFollette's efforts, with its definite declaration for the principles and means of genuine popular government. Roosevelt was invited to join, says LaFollette, but he "had not become enough of a progressive at that time," and so declined.

The leaders began to consider seriously the choice of a progressive candidate for president, to hold together and solidify the movement. Roosevelt, however, opposed the naming of a candidate in opposition to Taft, saying that nobody could beat Taft for the nomination, and that the democrats would certainly win in 1912 anyhow.

In the spring of 1911 Roosevelt came out of his retirement and made a tour of the west.

"In the light of subsequent events," says LaFollette, "there can be little doubt that when Roosevelt left the white house he had 1916 firmly in his mind. He returned from Africa to find that many changes had taken place; the progressive movement he found far in advance of him; he neither understood it, nor was he in sympathy with its manifest purposes, in so far as he comprehended them. He deliberated for a time as to whether he would stand with the administration, supporting Taft for renomination, or seek to identify himself with the progressives—or straddle. He straddled.

"It left him awkwardly stranded in the election of 1910. He halted to take account of stock. Events were rapidly transpiring. It was evident that the Taft administration was losing ground day by day. The congressional elections of 1910 forecast disaster for the republican party in 1912.

"Roosevelt was still looking to 1916 and as the political situation developed in the following year, in his political philosophy, which is always personal, Taft's renomination and defeat in 1912 fitted admirably into his plan.

"Then came this tour in the spring of 1911. It fired his blood. There were the old-time crowds, the music, the cheers. He began to think of 1912 for himself. It was four years better than 1916; and four years counts in the life of a man turned 53; a world of things may happen in four years.

"But everyone saw the uncertainties of 1912. Roosevelt clearly saw them. He could take no chance. He could not afford to become a candidate against Taft and fail.

"Why not put forth another man, and feel out the Taft strength? If it became apparent that Taft could not be beaten for the nomination, a contest would nevertheless weaken him and make his defeat in the election the more certain. If it became clear that Taft could be beaten in the convention, and furthermore, that he (Roosevelt) could win in the election against a democrat, his restored confidence, resulting from the tour of 1911, made him reasonably certain that he could displace the candidate put out against Taft, stampede the convention and secure the nomination for himself."

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. FARMERS PLOWING AT NIGHT.

Texas Ranchers Forced to Do So to Avoid Flies.

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 4.—Farmers in Denton county are plowing by moonlight in order to avoid the attacks of a fly that has caused the death of live stock in Northern Texas. Denton reports that the situation in that section is improving. In Grayson county dairymen are the heaviest losers, the attacks of the pest having largely decreased the supply of milk, which has further affected the butter market. Horses are covered with blankets and cast-off clothing to protect them from the fly. No abatement of the pest is reported in that section, and it is feared live stock interests will suffer heavily. At Sherman fifty deaths of stock have been reported. Cows refuse to eat, and a shortage of milk is threatened. Horses and cattle are being driven blind. In the city the horses' legs are clothed in overalls, and the flies are attacking the people. The pest is the worst ever known in this section.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

PIPE HOLDS TOT CAPTIVE.

Three Policemen and Chisel Required to Release Babe.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 4.—Her tiny foot caught in an open curb box on the sidewalk at Washington street and Main avenue, where she and er parents were waiting for a car, little Josie Olsen, three years old, daughter of F. Olsen, E312 First avenue, was held captive for more than an hour. Officers Scott, Hughes and Benway, sent from police headquarters with Steward Ned Edris, of the emergency hospital, worked to extricate her during a great part of the time, being compelled finally to get a cold chisel and hammer, with which they broke the pipe before the foot would come out. In the meantime, though at an early hour, 8 o'clock, a large crowd gathered and it was necessary for the officers to establish lines to keep the child from smothering with the excitement and pressing of the craning throng. The mother was near frantic before the ordeal was over. The box, which is more of a pipe, being used to turn off water, was left open through carelessness.

$500 BURIED GOLD IN BANK.

Cape Girardeau, Mo., Oct. 4.—Five hundred dollars in gold, that had been buried since 1862, have been deposited in the Sturdivant bank og Cape Girardeau. The coins were twenties, tens and fives, the earliest being of 1846 and the latest dated 1861. The money was found by Don Grimm and was in an earthen pot that had been in the ground since his grandfather buried it fifty-two years ago during the civil war.

Chronic Ulcers Mean Bad Blood

If outside influences were responsible for chronic ulcers, then external applications and simple cleanliness would be a curative treatment. But the trouble is always in the blood which has become unhealthy and diseased, and keeps the sore open by continually discharging into it impurities and infectious matter. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may cause the place to scab over temporarily, but the blood is not made purer by such treatment and soon the old inflammation and discharge will return and the sore be as bad or worse than before. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down into the blood and removing the impurities and germs which are responsible for the place. S. S. S. thoroughly purifies the circulation and in this way destroys the source of every chronic ulcer. In addition S. S. S. enriches this vital fluid and assists nature in overcoming the bad effects of a chronic ulcer. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

MRS. SARGEANT DIES IN WEST

Head of Auxiliary to B. L. F. & E. Expires in Seattle.

WAS BOOKED FOR VISIT HERE SOON

First Train Over Wabash Elevated Tracks Due Tomorrow.

Hyacinth lodge, No. 38, Ladies' Society of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, is in receipt of news of the death of Mrs. F. P. Sargeant, the grand president of the society, with jurisdiction over the United States, Canada and Mexico. Mrs. Sargeant resided in Washington, D. C., where her official headquarters were also located. September 1 she started upon a tour of the Canadian provinces and western states and was taken ill while in Seattle, Wash., where she died after sickness of a few days. Mrs. Sargeant has been in Fort Wayne and is beloved by all members of the Ladies' Society who met her here. She had arranged to return here November 21, and the local societies were preparing to give her an appropriate reception. Speaking of her this morning Mrs. F. W. Grayless, a member of Hyacinth lodge, who met Mrs. Sargeant several times, said: "She was a most lovable woman and possed the attributes which made all who became acquainted with her her friend. She will be greatly missed by the Ladies' Society." Mrs. Sargeant was the widow of the late Frank P. Sargeant, for several years at the head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers and later a government official. Mrs. Sargeant was elected president of the Ladies' Society in 1898 and successively elected since at each meeting of the grand lodge.

Strong, Vigorous Feet, Never Sore

Just Rub on EZO for the Feet and Away goes Foot Misery

Just think of it: only 25 cents for a generous jar of EZO, a pleasant, refined ointment that quickly soaks into the pores and in a few minutes brings blessed relief to tired, weary, sore, burning, tender feet. All druggists have it.

It's so easy to use, too—no fuss or bother getting ready—no time wasted—just rub on EZO for the feet and misery vanishes. Used daily it makes weak feet strong and vigorous and draws the agony from Corns, Bunions and Callouses. It's fine for rough skin, chapped hands and face, chilblains and frosted feet. Meyer Bros. Co. guarantees it.

OFFICIALS RETURN EAST.

Joseph Wood and J. T. Turner Pass Through City.

President Joseph Wood, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana, and J. T. Turner, vice president of the Pennsylvania lines, passed through the city at an early hour this morning. They had been north on the G. R. & I. road on business and came down from Grand Rapids during the night and left by special train over the Pennsylvania this morning at 7:20 o'clock. Supt. W. M. Wardrop, Trainmaster J. F. Patterson and Road Foreman of Engines C. B. Colmey, who came home early this morning after going over the Western division with the track inspection party, went as far as Crestline with Messrs. Wood and Turner.

FIRST TRAIN TOMORROW.

Wabash Will Put Its Elevated Track in Service.

Some time tomorrow the first through train will pass over the elevated track of the Wabash, which is just receiving the finishing touches in the way of ballasting. For a day or two only freight trains will use the elevated track, but if nothing interferes with the work now in progress, all passenger trains will be sent over the elevated track next Monday or Tuesday. Then the work of ballasting the second track and of elevating the third will be taken up.

BELIEVE GREEN WAS SANDBAGGED

A Conneaut paper is inclined to the opinion that Engineer Bob Green, who was found unconscious in the yards in that city, was waylaid, robbed and placed on the tracks so that the trains would hit him.

The paper says:—"That Bob Green, Nickel Plate engineer employed on the Buffalo division of the road was robbed and his body then placed on the tracks in the Nickel Plate yards just before the arrival of passenger train No. 4, Tuesday morning, is now the belief. Green, seriously injured in a Conneaut hospital, is unable to talk on the matter. When the engineer left his home to take the train to Buffalo he is known to have had a sum of money on his person, while neither money or keys, which he is also known to have had, could not be found after the accident. The robbery theory is strengthened by the fact that Green was in the yards some distance from the station when he intended taking the train to Buffalo."

THE BOURBON FAIR.

The Pennsylvania company ran two special trains into Bourbon yesterday on account of the fair, which is being held there this week. The fair is said to be the best in the way of exhibits and races in its history and the attendance yesterday was far greater than the best day of any previous fairs in that city. The two special trains over the Pennsylvania carried over 1,900 people into Bourbon yesterday and all of the regular passenger trains that stop at that point had all the passengers in the morning hours they could handle.

INSPECTED CONSTRUCTION WORK.

General Superintendent H. A. Boomer, Indianapolis; Chief Engineer W. G. Atwood, Indianapolis; Division Superintendent J. W. O'Brien, Muncie, and other officials of the Lake Shore spent the night in Fort Wayne. Their mission here was business connected with the freight yards and freight house improvements now in progress and after looking over the grounds this morning they left by special train for Muncie. The work of erecting the new freight house is going to be greatly delayed by failure of the steel mills to furnish the structural iron for the building.

COMPLETED THE INSPECTION.

The annual track inspection of the Pennsylvania lines has been made and the Fort Wayne officials who were in the party have returned home. Interest now centers in the reward of the prizes for the best piece of track, for which handsome premiums were offered. The higher officials and others from east of this city who composed the party left Chicago at 11:30 on a special train last night and passed through this city about 3 o'clock this morning for their respective home cities.

ENGINE WATCHMAN HURT.

L. G. Hummel, of this city, who has been employed as watchman at nights over the Pennsylvania work train engine at Upper Sandusky, sustained painful injuries last night. He was in the act of passing from the running footboard on the engine to a coal car on an adjoining track, when he lost his footing and fell to the ground. His back was badly wrenched and he was bruised about the body and limbs.

ENLARGING ANNEALING PLANT.

Another and larger annealing furnace is being installed in the annealing and treating department at the Fort Wayne Electric works. The growth of the business has been so rapid that the present annealing plant is inadequate. The new oven will be in service in a few days.

LESTER HOCH PROMOTED.

Lester Hoch, a messenger at the Wabash shops, has been advanced to the position of assistant timekeeper clerk in the office of General Foreman Henry Eisele. Howard Slagle has been employed as a messenger to succeed Mr. Hoch. The change was made this morning.

TAKES JOB WITH PENNSY.

Owen O. Vaught is a new draughtsman at the Pennsylvania shops. For awhile he will work in the little draughting room back of the planing mills. Mr. Vaught comes from Bedford, Ind., where he was employed by the Democrat Publishing company.

HAD HIS FOOT BRUISED.

O. W. Kalles, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, had one of his feet painfully bruised yesterday when a locomotive driver tire fell upon the member. Mr. Kalles will be out of service a few days.

S. F. BOWSER SAILS SATURDAY.

News from S. F. Bowser, who has been in Europe for four months, is to the effect that he will sail from Liverpool tomorrow for America and will be in Fort Wayne about the 14th.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Switchman H. M. Shay resigned a position at the Wabash yards yesterday.

W. J. Rolles, a pipefitter, has taken employment in the Pennsylvania shops.

C. E. Bradley has gone to Long lake to spend a week. He is a Pennsylvania shopman.

L. R. Carpenter, who had been sick a week, resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

C. J. Flory, of the Pennsylvania pipefitting shop, is off duty on account of the sickness of his wife.

R. S. Augsburger and C. E. Dale are out on the Wabash line today in the interest of the supplies department.

Harry Giesey, of Grenloch, N. J., is here to spend a few days with Ed Keech and Oscar O. Rohrbaugh, of the Wabash.

James Young, who had been sick a few days, resumed work in the air brake room of the Pennsylvania this morning.

G. H. Shaw, claim agent for the Lake Shore, with headquarters at Elkhart, was in the city yesterday on business.

Engineers M. Leger, C. F. Kein and H. D. Fisher and Firemen O. Fell and G. L. Sweeney, of the Pennsylvania, are sick and off duty.

Matt Herres, clerk at the Pennsylvania round house, resumed work this morning. He had been spending several days at Graf and other points in northeastern Iowa.

M. D. Flanigan, general coal and ore agent for the Lake Shore railroad, with headquarters at Cleveland, was in the city yesterday on business for the company.

Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania, accompanied by his wife and daughter, went to Chicago this morning to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

W. K. Eicher, manager of the Grand Rapids office for the Fort Wayne Electric works, is here today consulting the officials of the company on matters of business.

T. Denahy, George Denany and A. L. Freiburger, who had been absent on account of sickness, reported for work at the Pennsylvania boiler shop this morning.

Assistant Foreman Frank Opatz, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, resumed work this morning. With his family he had been enjoying a two weeks' sojourn at Lake James.

Frank Simonton, engineer, has resumed his place at the throttle of one of the engines pulling the Pennsylvania over subdivision C. Engineer Simonton had been enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

W. F. Melching, employment clerk at the Fort Wayne Electric works, is taking a day off to assist his family in moving to new quarters on Cottage avenue. They formerly resided at 1015 Ewing street.

Pennsylvania shopmen who are sick are Charles H. Shuster, J. Thompson, E. W. Mitchell, Harvey Stahl, George Telley, F. Richhart and E. W. Zimmerman, the latter one of the foremen in the erecting shop.

L. A. Basteus, who resigned a position at the Pennsylvania flue shop a few days ago, will go to Nebraska to reside. S. A. Haus, who also resigned at the flue shop, has taken employment at the factory of the Noble Hoop company.

Relatives in Fort Wayne have been advised of the illness of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Armel, of Covina, Cal. Mr. Armel is afflicted with stomach trouble and Mrs. Armel had appendicitis and each was in the hospital for some time. They are much better and have prospects of recovery. Mr. Armel is a carpenter by trade and fourteen years ago was thus employed in Fort Wayne. He is now a successful orange grower at Covina.

In France last year the births exceeded the deaths by thirty-five thousand.

How Ladies Improve Looks

"Many ladies, old and young, suffer a round of tortures with their nerves, and many are so frail, thin and bloodless that their splendid features are lost sight of while a vain attempt to conceal the angularity of the figure, deceives no one but themselves and really excites the pity and ridicule of the world," said a well known, largely employed practicing physician, in a recent lecture at a young ladies' college. "I do not mind exposing a little secret of mine to all such, as it can do no harm and may result in much happiness and health. It is simply this: Any thin, bloodless nerve-tortured man or woman, can become as fit as the fittest by taking regularly for several months an easily obtained pharmaceutical product, known by the profession and pharmacists as "three-grain hypo-nuclane tablets, put up in sealed packages with directions for home use."

KINSEY IS HELD TO HIGHER COURT

Barber is Bound Over Under a Charge of Wife-Desertion.

CITY COURT CASES

Carl Kinsey, charged with wife desertion, was bound over to the Allen county circuit court by Judge Mungovan this morning after a preliminary hearing in the municipal court. Kinsey has been working for some time in Bloomington, Ill., and it is charged that he made no effort to support his young wife. She has been working for the Kidd Medical company, and is in failing health and almost physically unable to support herself. Kinsey has worked in this city at the barber trade.

The Other Cases.

Charles Houtz and Elsie Swinehart, charged with adultery, entered a plea of guilty through an attorney, and were fined each $5 and costs. They did not appear in court.

Lizzie Stokes, charged with loitering, asked to be locked up for another week, and her case will come up next Friday. Lizzie is addicted to the use of drugs.

Ad Gray was found guilty of loitering in the streets of Fort Wayne and was fined $5 and costs. August Jordan was in court this morning again and was sent to jail for eleven days because he could not pay a fine of $1 and costs.

Several drunks on the docket were let go. They were: Frank Towle, Bud Williams, Ed Duffy, Jack Rawlins and Ed Barton.

Jack Devany faced Judge Mungovan this morning after an absence of almost two years. Jack got on a fearful drunk last night, but he has a job and was let go on his promise to go right to work.

John Sheets, charged with drunkenness was fined $1 and costs.

Oliver Lee, charged with exceeding the speed limit, will appear tomorrow, as his case was continued this morning.

You can "shine" on a rainy day just as effectively as in the brightest weather.

A Question of Clothes of course:

The kind of clothes that have "back-bone" and "sunshine" worked into them instead of pressed into them, don't get that dumpy look, the first wet day. Dr. "Goose," the patent medicine "quack" for poor tailoring, doesn't have to be called in every other day to dope up your front or stiffen up the back of your collar.

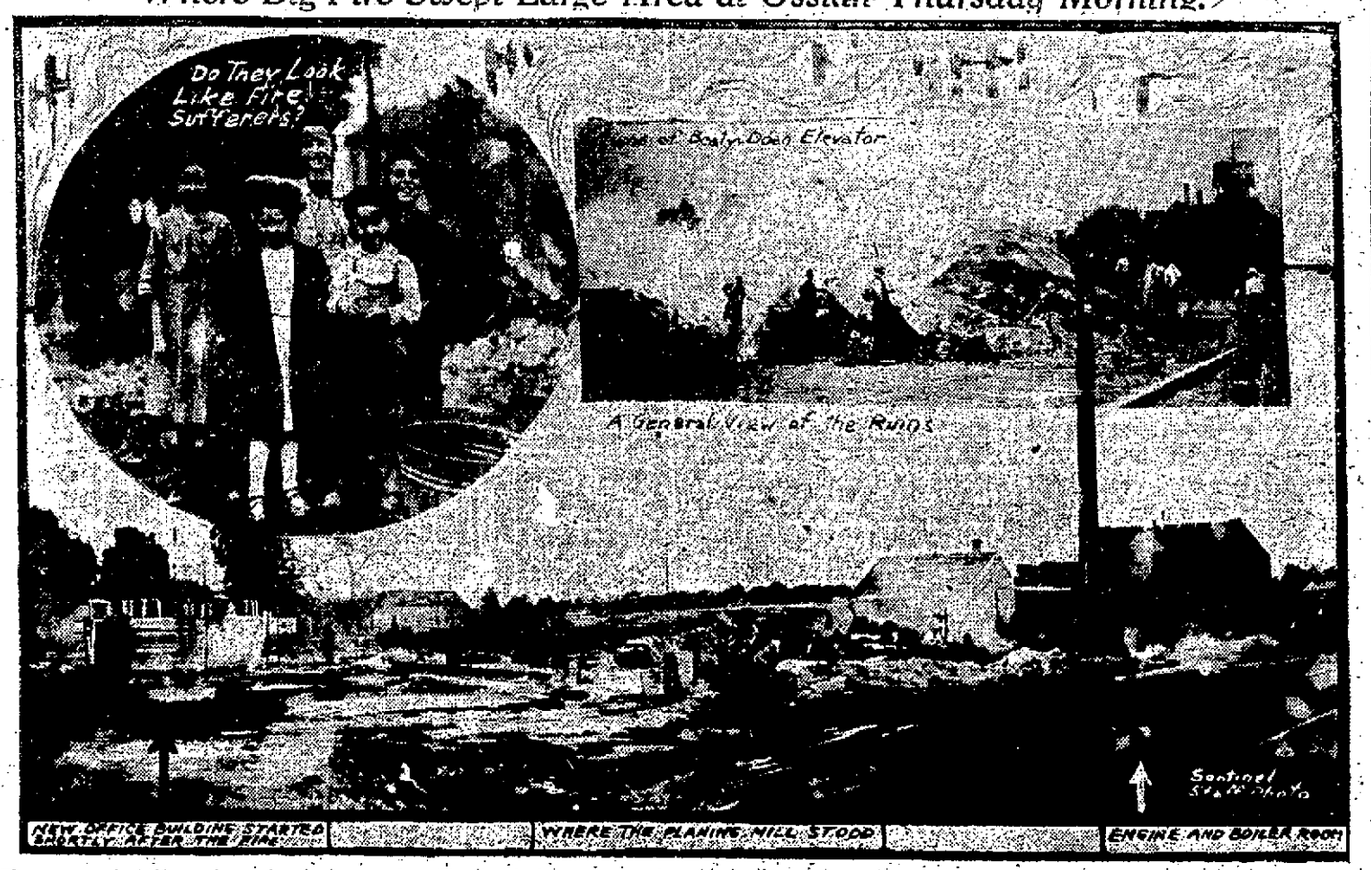
Where Big Fire Swept Large Area at Ossian Thursday Morning.



The group of children shown in the picture does not impress one as being members of a household that was forced to flee from the fierce flames which wiped out the grain elevator, planing mills, sawmills and lumber yards of the Beaty-Doan company at Ossian Thursday morning, entailing a loss of $25,000, and to flee with only such clothing as they could get hold of in their flight. Yet such is the fact.

With buoyant spirit of childhood they had forgotten their terrifying experience when The Sentinel camera caught them while the fire was still smoldering in the ruins, and they were snapped while they took an intermission from a search for the molten silver of $2 that was destroyed along with the home of Ellis Dishong. Mr. Dishong has six children and these are some members of the flock.

The Dishongs lost almost everything and the family was scattered over town Thursday night spending the time with kindly neighbors who volunteered to take care of the little family until the head of the house can find a home and furnish it. The little group stood on the ruins of the home and back of them the family supply of coal, laid in for the winter, was still burning.

Mr. Dishong's purse contained $6, of which $2 was in silver, and the children thought they could find the silver in the ruins. He carried a small amount of insurance on his furniture and the house belonged to his employers. The wife bemoaned the loss of her canned fruit on which she had expended some cash and a vast amount of labor.

The ruins show the enterprise of the Beaty-Doan concern as the work of erecting an office was started with the ruins of their mill and elevator still smoldering and the side walls of the structure were finished last night. The total destruction of the plant is shown in the general view.

Nothing but the trucks of a freight car and a pile of burning grain stood where the elevator was located. The car had been placed beside the elevator to be loaded and there was no chance to save it. People of Ossian spent most of the day yesterday about the ruins discussing the details of the fire.

You can buy one of the great Jewell Base Burners at Foster's as low as $28.50.

A Certain Hat For a Certain Face

It never occurs to most Milliners that every woman can't wear the same hat. The moment they find a hat that goes well, they sell it to everybody.

We try to have just that certain hat in every case, which will go best with a certain face. This means that we have to have every good style on the market. That we have to carry a very large stock. And that is why you benefit so well.

Here is a little Turban effect, for example. If you have just the face for this style, you ought to have this Turban. But if not, you ought to have some other kind of hat.

Come and let us choose a prettier hat for you than you've ever had in your life before. Just look at all the different values and different styles we are offering.

For Saturday we have arranged a special group of Tailored Hats in plushes, velours and velvets, and combinations, beautifully trimmed with the newest effects. Everyone an individual style, the product of our own workroom, but reflecting a charm of design and color scheme purely Parisian—

$8.50, $10.00, $12.50

UNTRIMMED SHAPES—A Special Purchase of Untrimmed Velour Hats

$3.95, $4.95, $5.95

This purchase was made several months ago and arrived just in time for this sale. Made of the finest quality beautiful silk nap velvet in the new soft brim. Medium, large and small shapes and all colors.

$3.95 Silk Velvet Hats, $1.98

Another group of Untrimmed Velvet Hats in black, white, red and navy; in various shapes, including the popular Colonial; regular $3.95 values. Special Saturday $1.98

Extra Special

Charmingly Trimmed Felt Hats in large shapes in this season's newest shades, including brown, champagne, blue, pink and lavender. Values up to $3.00, for Saturday only $1.49

The Fashionable Coiffure This Season

The prevailing fashion in hair-dressing is the braid coiled loosely, very high around the head. In order to be in fashion Milady must supply herself with two small switches or a very long switch. These special values in switches for Saturday offer some very helpful hints:

20-inch length, regular price $1.50 for 98c
22-inch length regular price $2.50, for $1.98
24-inch length, regular price $3.50, for $2.25
26-inch length, regular price $4.25, for $2.75
28-inch length, regular price $5.00, for $3.75
30-inch length, regular price $6.00, for $4.49

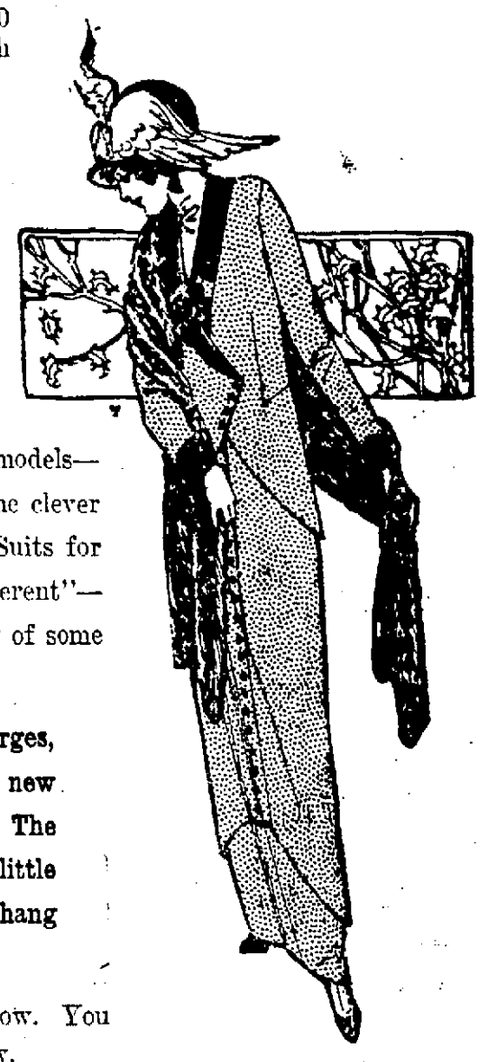
A Message to the Woman Whose Suit Limit Is $25

Our display of Tailored Suits at $25.00 shows what wonders a woman can do with her suit-money if she spends it here.



We have always featured particularly $25 Suits. This season, however, we think we have outdone all previous efforts in selections. If $25 could purchase more style, more quality, more anything else that is desirable in tailormades, we should like to see it.

AT 25.00 are conservatively plain models—Suits with a dash and snap given by some clever curve of the tailor's scissors—Novelty Suits for the woman who wants "something different"—every Suit in the collection being a copy of some high-priced model.

The materials include diagonal serges, fancy mixtures, home-spuns, the new rough suitings and men's serges. The styles are incomparable—jaunty little coats, graceful skirts that set and hang just right. The tailoring is superb.

Let us show you these Suits tomorrow. You will be delighted with them, we know.

In Splendid Readiness---Coats for Children, Young Girls and Misses

We specialize in the correct outfitting of young-folks from 2 to 16 years. For the new season we planned on a broader, more thorough scale than ever before.

Our showing of smart top coats for girls was never so large and varied as it is just now. The felted models are most popular, made of warm rough coatings and chinchilla, with large collars and button trimmings. The Peter Pan coats for young girls and normal college coats for their older sisters are just the sort of garment girls like and styles that are particularly becoming.

Plenty of Flannelette Nightgowns Here

Many women will not be without them these chilly nights, and they are laying in supplies now. There is a full assortment of styles, in all white or striped flannelette.

Some have neat turn-down collars, others are collarless.

OUTING FLANNEL GOWNS—in plain, white or pink and blue pin stripes. Made high or V-neck; braid trimmed; special at 79c

FLANNELETTE GOWNS—In plain white, trimmed with wide band of blue or lavender stripe wash silk; finished with pocket; all sizes; very special at $1.25

MUSLIN GOWNS—Made with high neck and long sleeves, tucked yoke, embroidery or lace trimmed; special at 50c

SATEEN PETTICOATS 98c

Made of excellent quality sateen in black and colors, plain-tailored or Accordion-pleated flounce—

SPECIAL AT 98c.

Ease and Comfort In Every One of These New Kimonos

Just the sort of Lounging Robes a woman enjoys slipping into these frosty mornings—luxuriously comfortable and charming as to appearance. The line is very complete just now, with these very special offerings:

FLANNELETTE KIMONOS AT $1.00

Long Kimonos, made of pretty, new flannelettes. Empire style with kimono sleeves; trimmed with wide satin band. All colors and sizes; regular $1.50 values; very special at $1.00.

like it now, but I worked as hard one time as most of you are doing now.

"I am a democrat. I was a democrat when it was unpopular to be one. Being a democrat I shall not abuse the republican party, for it has enough trouble of its own at this time. Striking at the party would be like stealing an scorn from a blind pig, or hitting a cripple. I have, however, a right to call attention to the great issues of the day and of the present campaign.

Taft a Failure.

"William Howard Taft, president of the United States, was undoubtedly a great judge. He has a great judicial mind, but as president of the country he was a miserable failure. He does everything wrong, has done so for four years, and he generally does it on Friday.

"As to the bull moose, a man told me the other day that it is composed of one-tenth moose, and the other nine-tenths bull. He is right. Headed by the leader Roosevelt, and following a platform stolen ver batim from other political platforms, they are bulling because they cannot get the power.

"Under the last two administrations, the Roosevelt and the Taft, respectively, the people who earn their living have about given up hope of ever getting anywhere. The laboring man does not get a dollar unless he fights for it, and this is due to the fact that when Roosevelt took the presidential chair there were 148 trusts. When he turned it over to Taft, there were according to Senator LaFollette, 10,020 trusts, and God only knows how many there are at this time. They say that Taft stole the nomination from Roosevelt. I say Roosevelt and Taft both stole from the American people and are spending the greater part of their time watching the trusts rob those who have to live on earned wages."

Praises Wilson and Cline.

Mr. James went into details concerning certain reforms the republican party failed to carry out, and closed by paying his highest respects to the democratic nominees, showing that his faith rests with Woodrow Wilson, whom he says will, without the shadow of a doubt, be the next president of the United States.

"We want a president like Woodrow Wilson," he declared. "Our party only awaits until November to bury both the republican elephant and the progressive bull moose.

"Ralston will make you people a great governor and if you want representation in the congress, go cast your votes this fall for Congressman Cline, as he was with you. I served with him and know whereof I speak. When Cline is back in congress and Ralston occupies the gubernatorial chair, Beveridge, our oratorical friend may then find time to explain why he voted for the Payne-Aldrich bill.

"Some of the greatest presidents the United States has ever known, men who did more a thousand times than either Taft or Roosevelt, did not ask the people for a third term. Washington, Jefferson and Jackson did not ask for additional terms. Even U. S. Grant, that great hero, who served two terms, was turned down when he finally asked for a third election. Roosevelt's appeal for a third term will never be granted.

"Woodrow Wilson drove the bosses from the democratic party in his own state, he whipped the bosses of the republican party and he will be elected by the greatest majority that ever placed a president at the white house."

Adams County Committee.

A party of prominent Adams county democrats came to Fort Wayne this morning and acted as a reception committee, taking Mr. James to Decatur, where he delivered an address at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Those in the party were County Chairman J. W. Bosse, Secretary H. B. Heller, P. S. Macklin, candidate for county surveyor and D. E. Smith, democratic candidate for circuit judge.

"We are spending most of our spare time this week in working up the voters for the registration next Monday. About eighty per cent. of the Adams county voters have already registered, and we will get the other twenty per cent. without much trouble, for we have personally covered the entire county. We do not mean to allow those who have not registered, to forget that Monday is their last chance to qualify for a vote at the coming election," said Chairman Bosse.

JUMPED TO SAVE LIFE.

While J. L. Brown, of Paulding, O., was switching in the Lake Shore yards in Fort Wayne this morning he suffered a broken collar bone and other minor injuries when he jumped off a car to avoid being brushed off by an approaching train. Brown was riding on a string of cars and came to a place where the tracks are very close together when the other train approached. He saw that he would be crushed between the two trains and jumped to save his life. He alighted on his right side, and that portion of his body is badly bruised. His injuries were dressed at St. Joseph's hospital. Brown has been living at the Lake Shore hotel, but has been here only a few days. He has worked in the city before, however.

THREE BREAK JAIL.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 4.—Three men effected a jail delivery at St. Joseph, Mich., last night by sawing their way through two sets of bars and dropping two stories. Sheriff Johnson did not discover the escape of his prisoners until this morning, when he went to feed the remainder. He organized a posse and went in pursuit.

WILSON ASSERTS NEITHER WILL DO

He Hits Directly at Both Taft and Roosevelt in Address.

TALKS AT BALL PARK

Indianapolis, Oct. 4.—For the first time during the national campaign Governor Woodrow Wilson last night directed an extended attack on the administrations of President Taft and former President Roosevelt. The governor charged that Colonel Roosevelt as president had been found "incompetent." Mr. Taft, he said, had, on the other hand, failed to alter the policies inaugurated under President Roosevelt's administration "when trusts and monopolies grew upon a scale never before dreamed of."

In the picturesque illumination of a baseball park, the governor saw spread before him last night for several hundred feet in the bleachers and on the field an immense throng.

The governor launched immediately into his attack on his two opponents. It was the first time he mentioned them by name at any length.

"What I want to call your attention to," said the governor, "is that the new third party has not drawn to itself the full strength, or even all of the principal leaders of the insurgent republicans, because this circumstance appeals to every man who thinks the present situation over; the very things that we are protesting against, the very conditions that we are trying to alter, are conditions which were created under the two leaders of the two branches of the present republican party because it is true that these conditions were just as much created under Mr. Roosevelt as they have been created under Mr. Taft.

"There was a growth during his administration of the great monopolies, which we call trusts, upon a scale never before dreamed of and upon a greater scale than has been characteristic of the administration of his successor. Some time ago during the campaign which preceded the two republican political conventions, you remember that there was a very interesting campaign between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt and everything that anybody could say against Mr. Roosevelt Mr. Taft said and the democrats were inclined to believe both of them, for the truth was that Mr. Taft was merely the successor Mr. Roosevelt in the prosecution of policies which Mr. Taft did not alter and merely sought to confirm and establish.

"You have therefore this extraordinary spectacle of two branches of the republican party, both of them led by men clearly responsible for the very conditions which we are seeking to alter, and the reason that some of the insurgent republicans are not following Mr. Roosevelt, the reason that men like Mr. LaFollette, for example, are not following Mr. Roosevelt, is that they already have tested Mr. Roosevelt when he was president and have found that he was not willing to co-operate with them along any line that would be efficient in the checking of the evils of which we complain.

"So, that the leader of the very movement which is proposed for our emancipation, is a man who has been tried in this very matter and not found either willing or competent to accomplish the objects that we now seek. In order to confirm my view of the matter you have only to read Mr. LaFollette's biography. There, in detail, it is told how Mr. LaFollette and others like him carried proposals to the then president, Mr. Roosevelt, which would have made this campaign inconceivable and after he had, feeling his first generous impulse, consented to co-operate with them, he subsequently drew back and refused to co-operate with them, under what influences, I do not care to conjecture, because it is not my duty, and it would be very distasteful to me to call in question the motives of this gentleman. That is not my object or my desire. My object is merely to point out the facts, that the very conditions we are trying to remedy were built up under these two gentlemen, who are the opponents of the democratic party. Therefore, to my mind, it is a choice between tweedle dum and tweedle dee to choose between the leader of the one branch of the republican party and the leader of the other branch of the republican party because what the whole country knows to be true, these gentlemen deny. The whole country knows that special privilege has sprung up in this land. The whole country knows, except these gentlemen that it has been due chiefly to the protective tariff. These gentlemen deny that special privilege has been caused by the administration of the protective tariff. They deny what all the rest of the country has become convinced is true."

The governor attacked the planks in the progressive party platform proposing social reforms.

"Is it not true?" continued Governor Wilson, "that when Theodore Roosevelt was president of the United States the people of the United States were willing to follow him wherever he led? And where did he lead them? When did he turn in the direction of this great uplift of humanity? How long was the conviction delayed? How impossible was it for him to see it when his arm was strong, to come to the succor of the weak, and now he has seen it, when he wishes to regain their confidence which by his failure to act he has forfeited."

United States Senators Kern and Shively, of Indiana, and National Committeeman Thomas Taggart also spoke briefly.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

COMBINATION

The word "combination" is not here used in its ordinary, modern, business sense.

It has reference to the happy combination that has made this bank the great success that everyone knows it to have been.

It refers to the fact that the officers are practical and successful bankers, while the directors are practical and successful business men.

That makes a combination mighty hard to beat, especially when the officers and directors all pull together.

This bank also combines the safety of a national bank with the conveniences of a savings bank. It maintains a saving department where interest is paid at the rate of 4 per cent.

GARRETT TO BUILD A NEW CITY HALL

Will Be a Modern Building Costing $25,000—The Site Has Been Purchased by City.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 4.—Garrett will build a new city hall edifice, one that will be modern in all its details, costing about $25,000. The site will be the northwest corner of Randolph and Keyser streets. Two vacant lots there have been purchased, with a frontage of fifty feet and a depth of 125 feet. The lots were a part of the Fredericks estate and were purchased by the city for the sum of $4,500. The new building will house the city clerk's office, an office for the mayor, council chamber, fire department, jail, city scales and public lavatory.

The city clerk's office, the fire department, jail and lavatory will be on the ground floor, with the council chamber above. The council figures on getting an auto truck for the fire department and making the department equipment all up-to-date.

Mayor Schulthess says that the city hall can be built without an increase in the tax levy.

GARRETT CITY DRAIN.

Construction Contract Let to Portland Tile Company.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 4.—The remainder of the Garrett city drain, excepting the B. & O. railroad portion, will be constructed by the Portland Drain Tile company.

Superintendent J. H. Zeek of the drain has accepted that company's bid of $2,794.45 and the bond of $2,500 has been furnished.

The work is to be started within thirty days, according to the contract. The job includes 3,800 feet of 20-inch sewer, 670 feet of 15-inch sewer, 5,700 feet of 12-inch sewer and 1,700 feet of mixed-sizes tiles.

When the contractor reaches the B. & O. railroad, the latter will do its part of the work, estimated to cost $1,000.

NEW DELPHOS AGENT.

Van Wert, O., Oct. 4.—David Thornell, well known locally, has been appointed to succeed C. S. Creps as agent for the Ohio Electric at Delphos. Mr. Thornell is a former Delphos man, but resided in this city for several years, and but recently returned to Delphos to accept a position with the traction company as a freight clerk, and during that time has become thoroughly acquainted with his duties.

FAMOUS OLD MILL BEING DISMANTLED

Ceased to Be a Paying Proposition and Mentone's First Mill is No More.

Mentone, Ind., Oct. 3.—The old Nickel Plate flouring mill which was one of the first and at one time one of the most prosperous enterprises of Mentone is being dismantled. The mill has been a losing proposition for a number of firms who have owned and operated it, and on that account it has been made a piece of trading junk to be tossed about for a number of years, and has stood idle for more than a year past.

Kinsey Bros., of Claypool, the last owners, have now sold the interior equipment to the A. D. Hughs Co., a house-wrecking firm of Rochester, who are shipping the salvage to various points over the country where new mills are being built.

No disposition of the building has yet been made. It was thought that it might be secured for the use of the kraut and catsup factory but no agreement for its purchase has yet been reached and may not be.

PIONEER AVILLA WOMAN.

Death of Mrs. Margaret Stewart at Age of 94 Years.

Avilla, Ind., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Margaret Stewart, aged 94 years, one of the oldest residents of Noble county, and among the few surviving pioneers of northeastern Indiana, is dead at her late home in Avilla. She came to Noble county about sixty years ago. Her husband, Uriah Stewart, preceded her in death seven year sago.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Robert Bolton, Misses Mary and Elizabeth Stewart, of Avilla, and five sons, S. P., M. H. and Will, of Avilla; Robert, of this city, and John, of Swan. Funeral Saturday afternoon at the Avilla Methodist Episcopal church at 1:30 o'clock.

RETURNS TO OLD HOME.

Markle, Ind., Oct. 4.—After a little more than a year's service as pastor of the local Christian church, Rev. S. T. Burgess has announced his resignation, to take effect the fourth Sunday in December. He will return to his old home in Blackstone, W. Va., and will probably take up a pastorate near that place.

A farmer at Bricket Wood, Herts, England, has provided a large gramophone for the use of his haymakers, so that they may work to music. The results are said to be highly satisfactory.

BRIDGE AT NEWVILLE.

Contractor George Jaap at Work on It in DeKalb.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 4.—Commissioners E. A. Bordner and Ted Kelham visited the Newville river bridge and found the work progressing very satisfactorily. Contractor George Jaap has had some difficulty to get carpenters for concrete form building and because of this has been delayed somewhat but only a few days will see the forms all completed ready for concrete pouring. Mr. Jaap says it will require only about twelve days, or two weeks, to handle the concrete, barring the unexpected, hence hence the job will be completed before winter. The new structure has two 90-foot spans.

GOSHEN COLLEGE MAN

Elected Superintendent of Schools for Noble County.

Albion, Ind., Oct. 4.—Cecil Kilgore, of Washington township, was selected superintendent of the county schools yesterday when the township trustees met in special session at the court house to fill the vacancy caused by W. A. Beane's death.

Mr. Kilgore was the caucus nominee of the democratic trustees and W. E. Harsh, of Rome City, the choice of the republicans. The vote was, Kilgore, 7; Harsh, 5. The new superintendent is at present employed as an instructor in Goshen college, Goshen. His interests are in Noble county, however, and the trustees considered him a resident when they voted him into office.

A Manufacturer from whom I buy some of my goods writes as follows:

DEAR MR. ISRAEL: —

While I approve of your policy to give the people of Fort Wayne their MONEY'S WORTH, yet I am amazed at the low prices at which you are selling your clothing. Our customers in other cities are selling the SAME suits and overcoats at 25 PER CENT. MORE than you. However, you are the doctor, and if the men of your city know anything of values, they will "eat your stock."

I am selling my clothing on the smallest margin of profit of any store in the United States, and every man in the city who knows values should "eat" these bargains.

How The Body Kills Germs.

Germs that get into the body are killed in two ways—by the white corpuscles of the blood, and by a germ-killing substance that is in the blood. Just what this substance is, we do not know. The blood of a healthy person always has some germ-killing substance in it to ward off the attack of disease. The fountain head of life is the stomach. A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished. To put the body in healthy condition, to feed the system on rich, red blood and throw out the poisons from the body, nothing in the past forty years has excelled Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a pure glyceric extract (without alcohol), of bloodroot, golden seal and Oregon grape root, stone root, mandrake and queen's root with black cherrybark.

J. H. MARTIN, ESQ

"My husband was a sufferer from stomach trouble and impure blood," writes MRS. JAMES H. MARTIN, of Frankfort, Ky. "He had a sore on his face that would form a scab which would dry and drop off in about a month, then another would immediately form. It continued this way for a long time. He tried every remedy that any one would suggest but found no relief. He then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stayed cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

GOV. MARSHALL MEETS ACCIDENT

Stone Thrown by Small Boy Hits Him in Nose at Montville, Conn.

TREATS IT AS JOKE

New London, Conn., Oct. 4.—Governor Marshall, of Indiana, completed his New England visit last evening by addressing audiences at Norwich and here. In these and in his afternoon address at Worcester, Governor Marshall devoted much of his attention to Colonel Roosevelt. Attacks of the governor brought out enthusiastic cheering. In each city the meetings were largely attended. Governor Marshall arrived at Norwich from Worcester early last evening, met the local party leaders, made his address and then was whirled away in an automobile to New London, stopping on the way for a five minutes talk to a party of democrats at Montville.

At Montville an unpleasant incident occurred, but the governor treated it as a joke. Just as the car came to a stop a boy in the crowd threw a stone which struck the governor on the nose, causing it to bleed slightly. The governor laughed and referred to it as the "first blood of the campaign."

In this city he paid attention to the subject of child labor and as soon as he closed he took passage on the night boat over the sound for New York.

Talks on Child Labor.

Governor Marshall said:

"The theory that prohibitive duties are to be levied upon foreign goods in the interests of the working man is disclosed by the facts to be fallacious. For forty years we have had prohibition practically on foreign made products. At the same time we have had free trade in foreign labor.

"Granting that these men are American citizens the statistics disclose that in the trust factories of this country not 40 per cent. of the heads of families earn wages enough to support these families. The residue of the support comes from boarders and from the labor of their children. In the tenement houses where these people live an average of 213 persons are sleeping in every one hundred rooms.

"Both politicians and philanthropists are appalled at the stunting of the lives and souls of the children. It is insisted that we must have more stringent laws upon the subject of child labor—that we must punish the parent who permits his child to work before he is sixteen years of age.

"This, then, is the condition: The wage earner of the family, unable to provide for its keep, shortly is to be confronted with a law which will prevent him from earning anything by incarcerating him in jail if he permits his children to labor.

"Now, my theory is that, save in rare instances, the laboring man loves his child as much as the trust magnate does his, and, given the opportunity, would look after his child with the same zealous care. My proposal is that you take some of the burdens off the shoulders of the laboring man, give him a chance to earn a living for his family and trust him to solve the child labor problem by the law of love rather than by the law of the land."

SEVEN DEAD IN WESTPORT WRECK

Injured Total Several Score But All Are Expected to Recover.

A SCENE OF HORROR

Westport, Conn., Oct. 4.—The death list of the wreck of the second section of the Springfield express, westbound, over the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad for New York, late yesterday, numbers seven. Of the several score of passengers who were more or less injured, only ten remain at the Norwalk hospital. All these were resting comfortably today and are expected to recover.

The dead: Mrs. James C. Brady, of New York city, wife of a son of Anthony N. Brady, of Albany, N. Y.; Miss Mary Hamilton, sister of Mrs. Brady; Mrs. E. Palmer Gavit, daughter of A. N. Brady; Mrs. C. Ransom, of Albany, sister of Mrs. Brady; Engineer George L. Clark; Fireman J. J. Moker; Mark Wheeler, mail clerk, who died at the hospital.

Thought Death List Higher.

Medical Examiner Powers, who began an inquest at the undertakers' rooms to which the bodies were taken last night, officially made the statement this morning that the list numbers seven. It had been thought there was an eighth body, that of a woman, but this has been disproven.

The wreck is attributed to the train taking a cross-over at a high rate of speed. Two signals set against the train are said to have been disregarded by the engineer.

All that remained of the train this morning were heaps of smoking wood, masses of twisted metal from three Pullman coaches which burned, a battered locomotive on its side, two west bound tracks turn up and a bridge spanning the street by which the station is reached almost wrecked.

The day coaches which had been left standing, and one Pullman, blackened and somewhat shattered, had been placed on the rails and hauled away.

The injured include Mrs. O. L. Wade, of Indianapolis, Ind., ribs broken; Mr. O. L. Wade, of same city, ribs broken; Phillip James, of Lake Forest, Ill., head and hands cut and bruised; Mrs. Phillip James, of same town, cut on leg, fingers and arm cut; E. L. Hill, Philadelphia, cut on head and right arm; Elliott Harrison, of Aiken, S. C., leg broken; Mrs. O. L. Wade, of Indianapolis, Ind., severe injuries to body; R. Price, of Warehouse Point, Conn., leg and arm broken; James Brady, Albany, N. Y., shock; E. J. Bridgette, of Wellesley, Mass., chest crushed and head injured.

The engine, driven at high speed, failed to take a cross-over from one track to another. The train went into the ditch alongside the track and the four Pullmans, which followed the mail and baggage cars, were completely demolished. The wreckage took fire, adding to the horror of the scene.

Wild Rumors Spread.

Although the work of rescue was pushed as rapidly as possible, it was several hours before the bodies in the first parlor car were reached and removed to the morgue. Meantime wild rumors of great loss of life had spread and it was late at night before it was definitely known that the death list in the train itself was only seven. Even when the railroad officials were making their preliminary report fixing the number of dead at seven, there were rumors of many bodies, charred by flames, being taken out of the wreck.

The locomotive, which was running at high speed, went over on its side after leaving the road bed and the boiler, to all appearances, exploded. Engineer Clark was taken out alive, but died soon after. Joseph J. Moker, his fireman, was crushed to death. The baggage car and the four chair cars, next following it, were overturned and in these occurred the loss of life. The three day coaches, although derailed, remained upright. The wreck carried down the poles carrying wires alongside of the tracks and delay ensued before outside assistance could be secured.

The South Norwalk fire department was called out and began working on the burning cars and surgeons were summoned from nearby towns. Meantime darkness had fallen and the work of rescue of the injured passengers was slow. The fire burned several hours in the wreckage.

BIG GATE IS EXPECTED.

It Is Believed Over $80,000 Will Be Taken in at Gate.

New York, Oct. 4.—It is estimated that the receipts from the opening game in the world's series herewill exceed $80,000. The high water mark last year was $77,000, but it was charged that many seats which fell into the hands of speculators remained unsold. Under the new arrangement it is figured that all of the 38,000 seats will be taken and there will be standing room for a few thousand more in the broad promenade in the rear of the grandstand. The commission will see to it that the rules and regulations of the fire department are obeyed strictly, so that the aisles and exits will be kept clear.

ROBERTS WINS TROPHY.

Is Victor in the 220-Mile Race for the Pabst Trophy.

Wauwatosa Race Course, Wis., Oct. 4.—Mortimer Roberts, of New Jersey, today won the 220-mile Pabst trophy automobile race with a Mason special car over the new Wauwatosa road course after a field of eight starters had been trimmed down to three by minor accidents. Roberts' time was three hours, 45 minutes 53.71 seconds, or an average speed of 58 4-5 miles per hour.

Harry Hastings, of Chicago, with a F. A. L. special car, finished second, and Bill Chandler, of New York, driving a second F. A. L. car, was third. The two last were a number of laps behind Roberts and finished after darkness had fallen over the course.

AUTO CHEMICAL RETURNED.

After a long test of the Harder automobile chemical truck by the Fort Wayne fire department the truck has proved unsatisfactory and was returned yesterday to the company at Chicago. The board of safety has ordered the new White auto chemical to be delivered within the next two months.

"CASCARETS" BEST BOWEL CLEANSER

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Adv.

MORE LIVE STOCK HEARD AS SLOGAN

TRIP IS BIG SUCCESS

En Route With More-Live-Stock-for-Indiana Special, Oct. 4.—The message of "More Live Stock for Indiana" has been carried into thousands of farm homes along the line of the Pennsylvania railroad to date this week by the strong force of Purdue lecturers. At Union City, Saratoga, Ridgeville and other stations hundreds of farmers heard the lectures on "Brood Sow Management" and "Cattle Feeding," and witnessed the feeder steer judging demonstrations conducted at the close of the hour and a half stop by Prof. F. G. King and Mr. Maurice Douglas. Cattle feeders, and others who by the lecture in the coach have become interested in feeding cattle, are shown the good and poor points of the fancy selected feeder, of the choice stocker, and of the inferior feeder steer carried on the train.

Silage a Wonder Worker.

"The best ration which we have found for fattening cattle in winter at Purdue Experiment Station," said Prof. King, "is one composed of all the corn and corn silage the steer will eat, 2½ pounds of cottonseed meal per thousand pounds of steer, and a slight amount of dry roughage, either clover hay, corn stover, or oats straw. Steers fed on this ration have made a higher average profit than steers fed any other ration. Steers fed corn, cottonseed meal and corn silage have made cheaper gains than those fed any other ration, but have not made quite as high a finish as those fed this ration plus some dry roughage.

Silage Not a Complete Feed.

"While silage is a wonder worker in reducing the cost of gains on fattening cattle," said Prof. King at Union City, "the cattle feeder must understand that it is not a complete feed in itself. It is a roughage, and as such, must be fed in connection with corn. Corn and corn silage form too wide a ration for the fattening steer, and therefore best results are attained only when corn and corn silage are fed with cottonseed meal at about the rate mentioned above."

The audiences all along the line have been invited to attend the fifth annual fall meeting of the Indiana Cattle Feeders' association which convenes each fall when the seventy head of experimental steers are put on feed. The meeting this fall is on Friday, Nov. 22, and many farmers along the line have expressed their intention of attending this fall for the first time. Director Thorne, of the Ohio Experiment Station, has been secured to address the meeting and other cattle men of prominence will speak.

Good Live Stock Section.

The schedule of today has put the "More-Live-Stock-for-Indiana" special through one of the best live stock sections of Indiana. Farmers, realizing that the best known methods in live stock management and feeding are none too good, and having been taught to realize during the past number of years that truly scientific methods are in truth the very best practical methods of feeding and management, are flocking to the trains, the dozen lecturers on board being kept busy at nearly every stop.

Stops were made yesterday at Union City, Saratoga, Ridgeville, Red Key, Dunkirk, closing with a night meeting in the city hall at Hartford City. The schedule today includes stops at Upland, Gas City, Marion, Sweetser and Converse. The last day of the week's run, during which the "More-Live-Stock" message has been given to thousands of farmers, will include stops at Amboy, North Grove, Bunker Hill and Onward.

Dr. G. M. Leslie is Named for 33d Degree in Masonry.

DR. GAYLORD M. LESLIE.

Dr. Gaylord M. Leslie, of this city, treasurer of the Bass Foundry & Machine company, has been elected to the thirty-third degree of Scottish Rite Masonry, by the supreme council of the northern jurisdiction of the United States, in session at Boston. Dr. Leslie will receive the degree at the supreme council next year.

When the honors of the degree have been conferred upon Dr. Leslie, Fort Wayne will have ten members of the highest degree of the order. Those who are now bearing the thirty-third are William Geake, Charles E. Read, John H. Bass, Frank E. Stonder, George W. Pixley, Charles A. Wilding, Dr. C. B. Stemen, James B. Harper and J. N. Study. Mr. Study received the degree at the present meeting of the supreme body.

Dr. Leslie will be one of the youngest holders of the degree. His rise in Masonry has been rapid and he is a member of every branch available in this city.

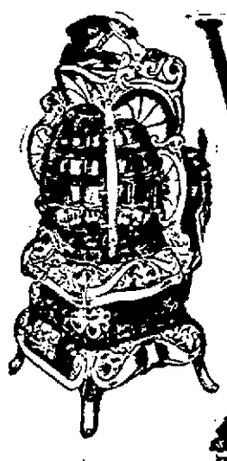
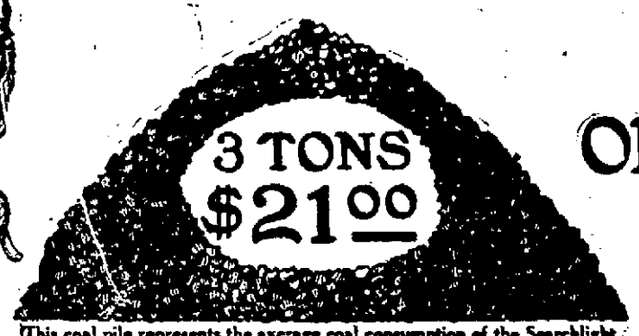
WHICH WILL IT BE?



The Searchlight



This coal pile represents the average coal consumption of the Searchlight in thoroughly heating 6 or 8 rooms in zero weather

OR

This coal pile represents the average coal consumption of the ordinary so-called Base Burner in only partially heating 3 or 4 rooms in zero weather.

The So-Called Base Burner

NO LONGER WILL YOU CONTINUE TO PAY TRIBUTE TO THE IMPERFECTIONS OF THE SO-CALLED BASE BURNER AFTER WITNESSING SATURDAY, OCT, 5, 1912,

SIDEWALK DEMONSTRATION OF THE SEARCHLIGHT BURNING HARD COAL, AND THE HOT BLAST FLORENCE BURNING SOFT COAL

And All the Smoke, Soot and Gases, in Front of THE FT. WAYNE OUTFITTERS STORE, SATURDAY ATTERNOON AND EVENING, OCT. 5, 1912 Where J. B. Howard, the Inventor, Will Prove with a Live Fire That The Searchlight and the Hot Blast Florence Consumes the Gases That Every Other Base Burner Wastes.

For over 50 years people have been paying tribute to the imperfections of the so-called Base Burner. They paid the prevailing price for anthracite coal, only to have one-half of the heating efficiency of the fuel wasted by the so-called Base Burner, which allowed the gases to escape up the chimney.

For over 50 years people have been paying to heat the heavens, because their imperfect Base Burner bottled up the heat and sent it up the chimney.

Fifty years ago Base Burners were constructed exactly the same as they are constructed today, with one exception, only in the exterior appearance have they been changed and in this respect much of the heating efficiency has been sacrificed for appearance's sake.

That the average Base Burner consumed too much fuel was understood only too well by everyone, especially did he who was forced to reckon with economy realize the need of a Base Burner that would economize on fuel.

J. B. Howard, the Inventor, pointing to the Combustion Damper.

Everything new in this world, every great invention, is the result of a want, so the Searchlight came as the result of the universal demand for a better Base Burner.

With the introduction of the Searchlight it is no longer necessary to pay tribute to the imperfect Base Burner. No longer need we be kept busy feeding its hungry maw with coals.

Mr. J. B. Howard, after years of painstaking effort, which marked the indifference of the Stove Manufacturers in general, perfected a Base Burner that consumes, and converts into heat the gases that every other Base Burner wastes.

The Stove Manufacturers, reading the handwriting on the wall, and foreseeing the ultimate widespread use of the Searchlight, once its merits became known, have sought by various methods to stifle its growth.

This caused Mr. Howard to hold public demonstrations in a manner which no other stove manufacturer dares to exhibit his stove, and to make the following defy to any stove manufacturer or dealer in the world.

I Have Deposited the Sum of $5,000.00 With Fort Wayne Outfitters Co.

Said amount to be paid to any manufacturer or dealer in stoves who will produce a hard coal Base Burner Oct. 5, 1912, that will burn all the ingredients of anthracite coal, such as carbon monoxide, commonly called poisonous gases, or will heat the same amount of space, with the same amount of fuel, as the Searchlight does, or any soft coal stove that will burn all the smoke, soot and gases, (absolutely) outside the Florence and its construction. (Signed) J. B. HOWARD.

NOTE—Mr. Howard, for the past five years, has been making this same defy, but it goes unchallenged, Not a single manufacturer daring to place his stove in competition with the Searchlight. We are in hopes that someone will come forward to win the $5,000, for it will only serve to more clearly illustrate the superiority of the Searchlight.

During this demonstration Mr. Howard will burn all sizes of hard coal, and actually show, out in the open, how the Searchlight consumes the gases as well as the coal itself, and converts into heat what every other so-called Base Burner on earth wastes.

By consuming the gases, the Searchlight will heat, with 3 tons of coal, the same amount of space that every other Base so-called Burner requires 5 tons to heat.

Now it rests with you whether you pay $21.00 for 3 tons of coal or $35.00 for 5 tons. Which will it be?

No Smoke! No Soot! No Dirt!

Everything Consumed

No Clinkers from Hard or Soft Coal!

Ashes as Fine as Powder

The Most Economical Stove on Earth!

It is not the original cost of a stove, but it is what it costs to operate it that counts.

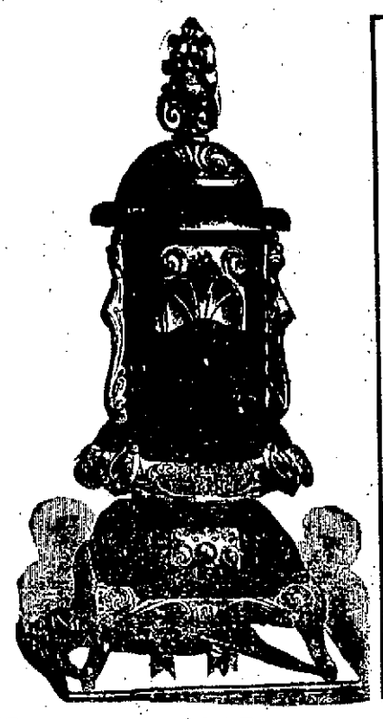
THE FLORENCE is an investment; it pays for itself in a very short time.

As a fire keeper it will be just as good 20 years from now. If the fire pot cracks inside of 5 years we will give you one free of charge.

The Only Floor Heater on the Market Or That Has Ever Been Made

THE FLORENCE

Has twice the life of any stove, because the Florence burns out the fuel; in all other stoves the fuel burns out the stove. It is truly a marvel—the most wonderful stove ever invented.



The Hot Blast Air-Tight Florence

will burn anything combustible—hard or soft coal, coal siftings, coal dust, slack coal, coke, wood, sawdust and rubbish. The fire never goes out day or night, and a steady, even temperature may be maintained. All features are patented and the J. B. Howard Combustion Patent, which has made the Florence famous, was sustained THREE DIFFERENT TIMES by the U. S. Courts, and any stove manufacturer, dealer or purchaser using same without proper authority, will be rendering himself liable for profits and damages. It is the zenith of stove perfection—the most important stove invention of modern times.

Come and See This Wonderful Stove Operated.

If the Florence Is Operated According to Directions:

The No. 21 will heat one small room all winter with two tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 48 will heat two or three small rooms all winter with two and three-fourth tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 51 or No. 33 will heat three or four rooms all winter with three tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 53 or No. 35 will heat five rooms all winter with four tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 55 or No. 37 will heat a large store or school room with six tons slack or lump coal. For a church less coal will be required.

Will burn a ton less of hard coal than a hard coal Base Burner of the same size and heat twice the space.

A Few Facts About the Searchlight,

Which We Guarantee to be Authentic.

WILL SAVE $3.50 ON EVERY TON OF COAL USED

Whereas the so-called Base Burner uses only one-half the heating power of hard coal when it allows the gases to escape, the Searchlight utilizes al lthe ingredients, thus saving $3.50 on every ton of coal.

WILL HOLD FIRE SEVEN DAYS AND SEVEN NIGHTS

This mind you, with one filling.

WILL HEAT FLOOR FIVE FEET FROM STOVE

Not necessary to put your feet up on the stove to warm them with a Searchlight, the exposed fire pot radiates the heat to the FLOOR for a space of 5 and 6 feet around stove.

WILL CIRCULATE HEAT INTO 5 OR 6 ROOMS

And they will all be just as comfortable to sit in as the room in which the Searchlight is placed.

NOT ONE DEGREE VARIATION IN TEMPERATURE

Set the Searchlight Combustion Damper when you go to bed at night, and when you get up in the morning not one degree of variation in temperature will be noticed, even though the thermometer registers 10 degrees below zero.

FOUR TIMES MORE DIRECT RADIATING SURFACE

And five times more circulating capacity than any other so-called Base Burner on earth.

NO CHECK DAMPER

The check damper on the so-called Base Burner does not stop the fuel from burning as it is represented, it only deadens the fire, causing a cold house in the morning. The fire in the Searchlight is regulated entirely by the Combustion Damper.

NO FINE DUST OR ASHES

There are no poke holes in the Searchlight, ecrything is airtight. The fine ash is carried up a dust flue, and not on to your furniture.

NO CLINKERS OR UNBURNT COAL

The Searchlight burns the coal to a fine ash, as fine as powder.

FIREPOT GUARANTEED FOR 25 YEARS

The only Fire Pot that was ever guaranteed for that length of time.

THE ROLLING TOP

The nickeled jacket top on the so-called Base Burner bottles up the heat and sends it up the chimney, the Rolling Top leaves the top clear and acts the same as register in a hot air furnace.

OUR GUARANTEE

If by operating the Florence and Searchlight according to instructions they do not do exactly as we claim for them,

WE WILL RETURN ALL YOUR MONEY

and make you a present of the stove. No other dealer would dare to make such an offer.

Vapor Treatment for Catarrh Colds and Coughs

The HYOMEI vapor treatment is especially recommended in stubborn cases of chronic catarrh of long standing, but remember that the inhaler should be used daily as usual.

This treatment only takes a few minutes time before going to bed. Pour a scant teaspoonful of Booth's HYOMEI into a kitchen bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises.

You will be surprised at the results of this treatment; it makes the head feel fine and clear.

This method is also used to break up the worst cold in the head over night.

A bottle of Booth's HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) costs 50 cents at Meyer Bros. Co. and druggists everywhere. Complete outfit, which includes the little pocket inhaler, $1.00.

No stomach dosing; just breathe; it is guaranteed to end catarrh and all diseases of the breathing organs. Booth's HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) is Australian Eucalyptus combined with Listerian Antiseptics that destroy catarrh germs and soothe and heal the sore membrane.—Adv.

TIME LIMIT FOR ALL PUBLIC WORK

Board of Works to Insert Penalty Clause in Street Contracts.

PAVING IS DELAYED

The board of public works in session Thursday night decided that in the future, public work contracts, at least those for street paving, will contain a penalty clause and a time limit. The matter came before the board when contracts of the Brooks Construction company for the paving of Summit and Webster streets were presented.

It will be impossible to finish either street this fall, and next Monday the contractor will be called in and instructed that a date for completion must be fixed next spring, and a clause will be inserted in the contract, providing for the payment of a penalty for each day in excess of the time limit. The same proposition will be made to Trippeer & Son, of Wabash, holding contracts for paving two streets.

Connecting the private sewer of the Indiana State school with the new sewer in the Forest park addition, will cost the institution $2,000. The school drain now empties into St. Joseph's river at Parnell avenue. Property owners on Greenwood avenue petition the board for an alley at the rear of their lots. The engineer was instructed to prepare plans.

Assessment rolls were ordered prepared for the Hugh street pavement and for the new sidewalks on McClellan, Lillie and Oak streets, and the assessment rolls for the paving of Harrison street, from Main to Superior, and the new Fourth street sidewalks were confirmed.

TAFT AT OLD-FASHIONED FAIR.

President and His Wife Mingle With Crowds at Brockton, Mass.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 4.—President Taft paid a visit to a real old-fashioned fair yesterday. With Mrs. Taft he motored 45 miles down through Boston to Brockton to spend an afternoon watching the races, listening to the bands and admiring the open air shows and other attractions.

They were luncheon guests of the Brockton Commercial club. When the presidential party reached the Brocton fair grounds they were driven twice around the half mile track while thousands of persons in the enclosure, outside the fence and in the grandstand cheered and waved hats and handkerchiefs.

Sure Way to Regain Robust Bloom of Youth

(From Woman's Tribune.)

A smooth, velvety-soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful tint and satiny lustre are rarerly seen. How to preserve them—that's the question. Famous beauty experts abroad long have known that ordinary mercolized wax works wonders in this direction. It actually gives a new surface to the skin, restorting that marvelous girlish color and softness in a remarkable manner. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will convert a faded, worn out or discolored complexion into one of captivating loveliness in less than two weeks. No special skill is necessary in applying the wax, it being smeared on at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel, will be found wonderfully efficacious. This tones up relaxed skin, causing it to remain firm and unstretched.

MISS DOPA ALSO PRESENT.

Hammond Woman "Drops in" on Bank Directors' Meeting.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 4.—The board of directors of the Indiana Harbor National bank was in session in the bank offices yesterday when 235-pound Mary Dopa fell through the skylight and landed in a sitting position on the long table among them. The directors scattered in panic, thinking a bomb had been exploded. Miss Dopa was not hurt. She had been hanging out wet clothes on the roof of an adjoining building and had tripped and fallen through the sylight.

OSCAR STRAUS ENDORSED.

Independence League Will Support Progressive Nominee in New York.

New York, Oct. 4.—Oscar S. Straus, candidate for governor on the progressive ticket, was endorsed for governor by the Independence league in state convention here early yesterday morning. The vote was 89 for Mr. Straus and 79 for William Sulzer, democratic nominee for governor, whose name was the only other one placed in nomination.

WILL BEGIN REHEARSALS.

The Junior Symphony orchestra will assemble in the high school auditorium this afternoon at 4 o'clock for its first rehearsal of the season. Gaston Baible, violinist of the famous Baible trio, is leader of the organization. Three concerts for the winter are being planned and the younger members of the orchestra are taking great interest in the orchestra. The Fort Wayne organization is the second of its kind in Indiana, Richmond having a similar orchestra on a smaller scale.

PLAN NIGHT SCHOOL.

Attorney Glenn Smiley and Prof. Claude Michelon, of this city, are preparing to start a night school for the education of foreigners in the city. The men will teach the foreigners the English language, how to speak and write it. The first lesson will be given on Oct. 14 and at that time all of the employers of foreign labor in the city will be invited to attend. Letters in ten different languages have been prepared, and a class of one hundred is expected to start.

KNOCKED MAN'S EYE OUT.

Glass Optic Fell on Sidewalk and Was Broken.

New York, Oct. 4.—"Without provocation he knocked my eye out and it fell on the sidewalk and broke," declared Michael Barbetta, of 336 East One Hundred and Fourteenth street, when Joseph Florio, of 553 Brok avenue, was arraigned before Magistrate Herbert, in the Morrisania court, on a charge of assault. It was explained to the magistrate that the eye was of glass.

Florio admitted striking Bargetta, but said that his accuser had followed his sister and that he had attempted to remonstrate with him. Barbetta, he asserted, then attempted to strike him. Florio was held in $300 bail.

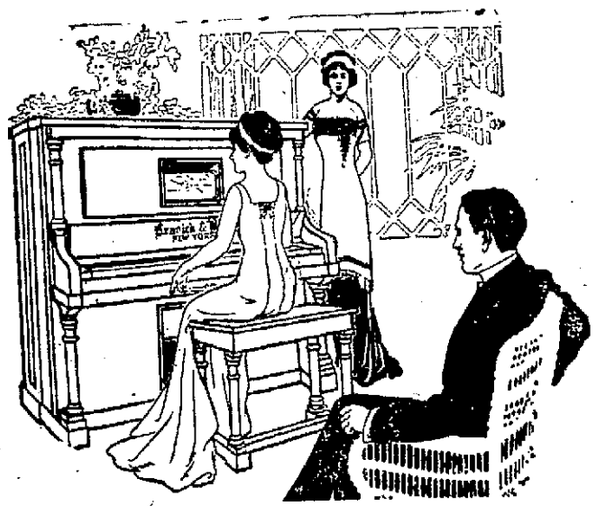
JACOBS

The Player and Piano Center of Ft. Wayne



UNEQUALED OFFERING OF PLAYER-PIANOS

The explanation of Jacobs' leadership in player-piano selling is found in the fact that here the person interested in player-pianos can make exhaustive tests and side by side comparison of the leading players and pianos of the day equipped with all the successful types of interior player actions.

The Unmatchable Line of Player-Pianos Includes

Apollo Player · Behning Player · Kranich & Bach Player · A. B. Chase Player · Krakauer Player · Shoninger Player · Bogart Player

Schaeffer Player · Laffarque Player · Baus Player · Doll Player · Cecilian Player · Ludwig Player · Universal Player

We can advise impartially about player-pianos—can freely answer all questions about the different makes—because we are not committed to any particular make. At Jacobs' it is for the purchaser himself—or herself—to make the fullest comparison and decide the question of desirability.

By all means visit the Jacobs Music House. A comparison of the Jacobs' line—unrivaled in any store in the state—will most likely reveal just the right combination of the piano and interior player action. Visitors are cordially welcomed and incur no obligation to buy.

Convenient monthly payments may be arranged and liberal allowance is made for used pianos in exchange.

DR. HADLEY TELLS HOW TO BE LEADER

CITES NOBLE MEN

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 4.—Citing the careers of Grant, Lee and other great generals, and statesmen of the character of Lincoln, Washington, Cromwell and William the Silent to show the superiority of the moral qualities of calmness, courage and honor over mere intellectuality, Dr. Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale university, delivered the matriculation sermon to the freshman class of the university in Woolsey hall.

After reciting briefly incidents of the battles of Pittsburg Landing and Gettysburg, Mr. Hadley referred to the dominance of Grant and Lee over physical discouragements.

"The quality that lifted these men above their fellows and gave them the loyal confidence of the soldiers under them and the people behind them was a moral one," he said. "It is moral quality of this same sort that is needed to make a man a leader anywhere and in any department of life.

"The first thing for us to do is to get a sense of the relative value of different objects; to get them into their right size and into right proportion to one another.

"But there is another quality of leadership, and a more important one. We must keep things in right proportion to our own selves and our own souls. Most of the excitement which upsets men's nerves is due to the overvaluation of something that comes into prominence at the moment, so that we lose sight of the greater things that are behind and beyond.

"The man who loses his temper lowers himself for the moment. More permanent is the evil to the man who goes one step farther and loses his nerve—who allows himself to be unduly excited by success or unduly depressed by failure. But there is yet one other act of self-abasement. A man may so overestimate the importance of an act to be attained, and so underestimate the value of his own soul, that he will be willing to purchase success at the price of honor. Whenever he does so he is saying to the world that he deems himself of less value than a game.

"Look back into the lives of the men I have named and we shall see what meekness means. They inherited what others could not receive because they had raised themselves above the pettiness of self-assertion into the larger atmosphere of self-devotion; because they were ready to forego and renounce and suffer if need be, in order that the thing worth doing might be done."

GIFT DOG KNOWS ONLY THE FRENCH

Owner Starts to Learn So He Can Talk to the Animal.

IS A POLICE CAPTAIN

Boston, Mass., Oct. 4.—So that he can establish a bond of sympathy between himself and a Newfoundland dog which has been presented to him by friends, Capt. James P. Sullivan, of the Court square police station, has begun a study of the French language. The dog was trained by a French family on the borders of Canada, and until he was brought to Boston he probably had never heard half a dozen words of English. When he was taken into the Court square station he seemed to realize that Captain Sullivan had become his new master, but he paid not the slightest attention to commands to "lie down," "come here," or to do a hundred tricks which the captain had been told he was capable of.

He just gazed wistfully into the eyes of Captain Sullivan, and when the latter lost his temper and threatened violence tears rolled from his eyes and he wagged his head.

"Something wrong with this dog," Captain Sullivan confided to his lieutenant when Rover, as he was rechristened, had been in the station two days. "He's got something on his mind."

The captain sent for the man who had given the dog to him and when he learned about Rover's French training got an interpreter.

Rover almost jumped over the captain's head when he was spoken to in French, and when the interpreter had talked a few minutes privately with the dog he told Captain Sullivan that Rover was as intelligent as many human beings.

"Just talk to him in French and he will do police duty for you," the captain was assured.

Within an hour Captain Sullivan had a French dictionary and now over his desk are a list of French words and phrases which he tries on the dog daily.

Occasionally he attempts to interest Rover in English, but so far efforts along this line have been flat failures.

"'Twill be a French station after a while," mourned a policeman. "The cap is so much taken up with the dog and his French dictionary that he calls us gendarmes and my name, which used to be Pat, is changed to Pierre."

DOG THEIR LOVE MESSENGER.

Baltimore, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Ira C. Moran, in testifying before the circuit court in her suit for divorce from her husband, created amusement in the crowded court room when she detailed the signals of her husband to a woman friend to make appointments for meeting. She testified that he trained his collie dog to bark night and morning at the back door of the woman's home as a signal for her to meet Moran.

"Then I would see them go out the road together, arm in arm, with our collie dog running alongside," testified Mrs. Moran.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Actual fighting in the Balkans turned the wheat market here upward today. December started at 90⅜c to 90½c, and rose to 90⅞@91c.

The close was strong at 92c for December, a net gain of 1½c.

Good buying on the part of leading houses strengthened corn. December opened at 52⅞c to 52⅞@53c and advanced to 53⅝c.

Oats swung upward with corn. December started a sixteenth down at 32c, and later touched 32½c.

The close was firm with December at 53¾c, a net gain of ⅞c.

Firmness in provisions developed as cereals grew strong. Sales at the outset varied from last night's level to 5c above, with January $18.75 for pork, $10.87½ to $10.87½@10.90 for lard, and $10.12½ to $10.15 for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 4.—Heavy buying of stocks was resumed at the opening of today's market with substantial gains throughout the general list. Canadian Pacific rose two points, and there was especial strength in Atchison, the Harriman and Hill issues, Coppers, Steel and General Electric. The few nominal declines at the opening included Smelting and Harvester.

Following London's lead, the stock market opened with a renewal of yesterday's activity, and strength, in which Canadian Pacific, St. Paul, Atchison and local tractions were especially prominent. The most optimistic feeling abroad was largely due to belief in a speedy settlement of the Italo-Turkish conflict. The cancellation of a considerable portion of the recent gold engagements by our bankers in London was accepted as additional proof of increasing monetary ease here. Considerable selling met the early rise and before noon various issues, including Reading and Steel, yielded all their gains. Bonds were firm.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.

New York, Oct. 4.—Money on call easy, 4½@5 per cent.; ruling rate, 4¾ per cent.; closing bid, 4¾ per cent.; offered at 5 per cent.; time loans, steady; 60 and 90 days, 5½@5¾ per cent.; six months, 5¼@5½ per cent.

Prime mercantile paper, 5½ to 6 per cent.; sterling exchange easy, with actual business in banker's bills at $482.25 for 60-day bills and at $485.55 for demand; commercial bills, $4.81½; bar silver, 64c; Mexican dollars, 49c; government bonds, firm; railroad bonds, irregular.

MR. FOSTER GIVES ANNUAL ADDRESS

Talks to State Commercial Clubs at Indiana Harbor.

LAUDS CIVIC SPIRIT

Indiana Harbor, Ind., Oct. 4.—About 150 delegates, representing commercial clubs from different parts of the state, were present at the opening of the fifth annual convention of the Indiana Federated Commercial Clubs in the rooms of the Commercial club of Indiana Harbor.

Mayor A. G. Schileker welcomed the visiting club men and Samuel M. Foster of Fort Wayne, president of the federated clubs, responded for the visitors. Judge Virgil S. Peater, president of the Hammond chamber of commerce, was the next speaker, his subject being "Industrial Expansion in the Calumet District and the Resulting Problem."

Berd Hall of Chicago spoke on "Business in Farming and Farming in Business." W. A. Evans, former health commissioner of Chicago, at the conclusion of Mr. Ball's speech, delivered an eloquent address on "Growing Pains," the same being applied to rapidly progressing communities.

Asks Next Convention.

Just as Mr. Evans was finishing his talk the Indianapolis delegation, twenty-one strong, headed by C. D. Boyd, arrived with a grand flourish of trumpets, and immediately started on a whirlwind campaign to secure the 1913 convention for the state capital. The obtaining of the next convention, though, is not the only thing this bunch of live ones is after. It wants indorsements of the proposed legislation for good roads and the James A. Allison and Carl G. Fisher plan for an ocean-to-ocean highway.

The banquet was held this evening at the Auditorium. President Foster acted as toastmaster, and speeches were made by Harry A. Whirlin, of Chicago, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States; James R. Hanna, mayor of Des Moines, Iowa, and Charles C. Brown, of Indianapolis.

President Foster's Address.

In the course of his address, President Foster said:

"You may call them what you like, business men's exchange, board of trade, chamber of commerce, or commercial club, they all serve the same purpose and the support which they receive and the activity which they display constitute a fairly good thermometer of the public spirit existing in any given community. More than this, the commercial club is both cause and effect. It not only marks and measures the public spirit of a community, but it also serves to form, develop and encourage this public spirit. It bears the same relation to the civic patriotism of a community that a newspaper does to its public opinion. We all know that a newspaper both reflects and molds public opinion and no man can draw the line and tell you where the press ceases to create public opinion and begins to reflect it, or vice versa. So with an active commercial organization, it is hard to say whether it is most an exponent of the spirit of a community or the author of its spirit. The truth is that it is both and exemplifies the truth of the old maxim 'the bird we love is the bird we feed.' No man can give of his time, his energy and his money to the advancing of the best interests of his community without coming to feel a keener interest in the welfare of that community. No faculty or organ grows without use. The unused arm withers, while the one in use grows strong and robust. Those faculties of the mind and heart grow strongest that are most used, and pride in and love for our home communities are strongest in those who do the most for their communities, and the more they do the stronger grows their love:

"Unless a man is in some degree working for the general good he is not working for his own good, but against it, for the one is interwoven with the other. The bonds of business and social intercourse are as closely knit as are our political bonds, or the physical bonds of the human body. Now, my friends, I don't believe we properly appreciate the opportunity which our commercial clubs afford for carrying on the world's work. They offer about the only place where you and I can come together and work without regard to differences in religion, politics or other forms of servitude. The securing of additional factories for our immediate communities is a laudable project, but it is not the chief end of man. Many, very many times, our communities would be better off without these additional factories which are factitiously and most expensively secured. The excellent program provided for this meeting illustrates what is in my mind. Much attention is now being given to the movement for good roads—roads that are to be better built and better maintained. The demand for more equitable and efficient methods of taxation is ever present. Improved municipal government is a crying necessity. Everyone realizes that we are face to face with the need for improving our methods of farming, for increasing the productivity of the soil and for elevating and popularizing the conditions of life upon our farms. What organizations are better fitted to take up and push such matters than our commercial clubs? We have in our state for instance, a university that is doing a great work along these lines. It is doing much with very little to do it with. It needs better support. I have the honor to be one of the trustees of Purdue university. I know something of its work and I know its needs. When I compare what Indiana is doing for its state university, especially in regard to its work, in behalf of agriculture with what other states are doing, I feel like going out upon the house tops and shouting to our people to wake up and not lag in the race for supremacy.
